dren should be spanked—regardless of age.—HUSBAND OF A TAMED SHREW

Dear Husband: I have no good conduct medals for men who marry children and "grow them up" with spankings. You both have my sympathy.

Dear Ann Landers: I was saddened by the letter from the little girl whose mother threw "Powder Puff," the dead cat, in the trash can and would not let the children have a funeral.

My children had a sweet and wonderful funeral for their cocker spaniel. The children lowered their heads and sang, "Where, Oh Where, Has My Little Dog Gone." It was very touching.

I thought you might like to know how another mother handles the situation. Thank you.—N.Y.C.

Dear N.Y.C.: Thanks for a heart-warming letter. I'm sure it meant a great deal to the children and you were wise to give them your support.

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love or Sex?" enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long self-addressed, stamped envelope.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped self-addressed envelope.
