will not be treated like a small child.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 23, a college graduate and hold a responsible position. Two years ago I started to date Jerry. Last February we became engaged.

Jerry and I did not have the same religious background. We decided our marriage would stand a better chance if we each explained the other's religion, attended the other's church and then decided which one would change over.

After three months of alternating — attending his church one Sunday, the next Sunday mine—I decided his religion had more solace to offer and agreed to change. I told my parents and they were unhappy but did not make a fuss.

Last month Jerry and I broke up. My folks are now insisting that I come back to my original church. I don't want to. What is your opinion?—MERCEDES

Dear Mercedes: A girl 23 should be allowed to make this decision on her own. Stick to your guns, Girl.

Confidential: Valiant Loser on a Great Ticket: Harry Truman said it better than anybody. "If you can't stand the heat, get out of the kitchen."

To learn the hokey-traps of teenage drinking, write for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Teenage Drinking," enclosing with your request 10 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.

Dr. Salisbury Will Speak

South Bay Educational Office Employees Assn. will meet this evening at 7:30 p.m. to hear Dr. Harold Salisbury talk on "Listening is Your Business."

Dr. Salisbury's talk is specifically adapted for executives of business and industry, office employees, and teachers and students of business administration. Listening is the element of communication to which most of us devote a great amount of our time, but in which we have the least skill, according to the speaker.

The meeting will be held at Silver Spur School, 5500 Ironwood, Palos Verdes Estates. All educational office employees are invited to attend the meeting.

Form District Auxiliary To County Medical Assn.

Women's Auxiliary of the Southwest District, Los Angeles County Medical Assn., will hold its organizational meeting at noon today at the Pen & Quill Restaurant, 3501 N. Sepulveda Blvd., Manhattan Beach.

Mrs. Thomas Stern, temporary chairman of the group, said that most of the other 15 districts in the County Medical Assn. have had organized auxiliaries for years, serving many public service and charitable causes, including bloodbanks, hospitals and recently in the Sabin polio immunization drive.

Mrs. Stern and a small committee have attempted to reach and invite the wives of all doctors who belong to the County Medical Association in the district which includes Gardena, Hermosa Beach,

New Officers Elected by Auxiliary

The election of new officers was the highlight of the meeting of the Ladies Auxiliary to Torrance Barracks, 1920 World War I Veterans, on Jan. 7.

Named to office were Ruth Hines, president; Edna Robertson, senior vice president; Eythel Edwards, junior vice president; Bessie Slonecker, treasurer; Margaret Bradley, chaplain; Lula Edwards, conductress; Belle Bennett, guard and Bernardine Davis, trustee.

A joint social meeting will be held Monday, Jan. 21, beginning at 6:30 with a potluck dinner.

Wives, widows, mothers, daughters, and sisters of World War I veterans are eligible for membership in the auxiliary. For further information, Mrs. Vesta Littrell may be called.

Mr. Reis walked to the altar with his daughter. She wore a traditional wedding gown of candlelight satin designed by Mrs. Helen Wood. Details were a cowl neckline, long pointed sleeves and a full skirt caught in bustle effect at the back and draped to a chapel train. A crown of orange blossoms held the fingertip veil and the bride carried a cascade of white roses and chrysanthemums.

Miss Mary Diane Reis stood as her sister's honor attendant. Miss Cornelia Hallarn was bridesmaid. Both wore bell-shaped mint green satin gowns and carried bouquets of white chrysanthemums and roses.

The bridegroom asked his brother, Richard E. A. Enroth, to serve as best man. Ushers were Edmund Hennigar, Ronald Sheahan and James J. Reis.

The Rev. Timothy Doyle officiated at the marriage service as Mrs. Mary Hanf, organist, played a medley of nuptial music.

A reception was held at the Alondra Park recreation hall where Miss Helen Watts registered the guests.

The couple spent a honeymoon in Las Vegas.

The bride will be graduated from UCLA in June and will then go to Ohio to join her husband, who is serving with the United States Air Force stationed at the Ohio State University.

Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Red-letter day in the life of your baby when he first sits up alone. (Could happen any time between 6 to 9 months.) But remember, those little back muscles are weak at first so baby should not be left sitting up or propped up too long. Watch for these fatigue signals: slumping forward or sliding from buttocks to small of the back.

Two cereal surprises for babies of all ages: Gerber Strained Oatmeal or Mixed Cereal, both with Applesauce and Bananas. Each cereal is cooked with the fruit and ready to serve. Wonderful flavors! Delightfully smooth, moist texture! Good nourishment because they're enriched with iron, calcium and important B-vitamins. Second helping, anyone?

Crib cue. If you've a crib with a drop-down side, make sure it's always up when baby's visiting in the land of nod. Can't tell when your little live wire will turn over.

Cup cue. Pretending to drink from an empty cup is a good forerunner to liquid self-feeding. Show baby how to do it with a cup of your own and he'll soon learn by imitation. When you do finally put a bit of milk in his cup, the practice he's had will help minimize spillage.

Now sip tip. Winning combination for the younger generation: Gerber Strained Orange-Apple Juice. Delicate and distinctive in flavor, it's enriched with vitamin C to the same high level found in all Gerber Juices. For more pleasure beyond measure, don't forget these other juice delights: Gerber Orange Juice, Apple Juice, Orange-Pineapple, Orange-Apple, Apple-Cherry, and Pineapple-Grapefruit.

P.S. Cooling sips of Gerber Juices feel ever so pleasant to a teething baby. Gerber Teething Biscuits are also designed to aid and please teething babies. Gerber Baby Foods, Fremont, Michigan.
