Style Show At Broadway Tomorrow

"Nothing fits!" This is the frequent cry of seven out of 10 American women who are 5'7" or under and can't find a single dress that's the right size.

A solution to the dilemma of such problem-sized ladies will be offered in a special style show at the Broadway Del Amo on Friday, Jan. 18, at 7:30 p.m. The presentation will introduce the new Spring collection of Berkshire B-Tween fashions, created especially to fit and flatter the "average" woman who needs a dress with narrow shoulders, a short waistline, added fullness through the hips, and proportioned skirt length. In addition to these important size details, women will find all the fashion-right fabrics and colors in versatile, casual styles in the Berkshire collection for Spring '63.

Helpful hints for the hard-to-fit woman's wardrobe will be given by Miss Bernice Blond, Berkshire's fashion coordinator, who is flying here from New York especially to commentate the show.

Titled "A Treasure Grove of Fashions," the show will be held in the Daytime Dress Department on the second floor.

A pearl flower crown held her veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white roses centered by a red rose.

Mrs. Gary Stever was the maid of honor. Mrs. Donna Marcoux and Miss Patricia Wills were bridesmaids. They were gowned in graduating shades of green organza and each carried long stem white roses.

Debra Boggs, in yellow organza, was the flower girl and ringbearers were Scott and Randy Larsen.

Daryl Lance stood as best man and ushers were Paul Grutis and Ken Pevic.

Both the bride and her husband are 1958 graduates of Torrance High School.

Mrs. Vom Steeg attended El Camino college and has been employed in Inglewood. Her husband served three years with the United States Armed Services and is employed by Minneapolis-Honeywell in Gardena.

Secretaries To See New Swim Styles

A preview of next season's swimwear fashions by means of colored slides will be the incentive for members and friends of South Bay Chapter, National Secretaries Association, to do their "shaping" early. Charles (Margaret), chapter public relations representative. The illustrations used in this humorous discussion of the foods, fads and fallacies of weight reduction were drawn by Jerry Lundquist who will be the chapter's guest of honor and who will present the swimwear styles. The dinner is to be held at the Five Torches at Crenshaw and Imperial at 7 p.m. and will be followed by a short business meeting and initiation of six new members.
