EDDIE LAYTON

Eddie Layton To Appear in Local Concert

Eddie Layton, Mercury recording star and international organ concert artist, will appear Sunday in an afternoon family concert at the Narbonne High School auditorium, 243rd Street and South Western Avenue, Harbor City, at 4 p.m., under the sponsorship of the Hammond Organ Studios.

Layton's concert tours have taken him to Europe, Hawaii, Canada and throughout the United States.

"Showcase Concerts" is sponsored by the Hammond Organ Studios of Torrance. Free admission tickets may be reserved by calling the studio at DA 6-1141.

Laura Wilck To Speak to Writers Club

Laura Wilck, literary agent, who is interested in searching out and developing new talent in the writing field, will speak on "How to Write for Today's Market" at tomorrow's meeting of the Southwest Manuscripters, at Clark Stadium in Hermosa Beach.

Miss Wilck is also an active play broker, having sold more than 400 plays to Broadway.

Among her literary discoveries, she names Benedict and Nancy Freedman, authors of "Mrs. Mike," the story of a woman's struggles in the Northern wilds. She was successful in placing the book with both hard and soft cover publishers, as well as selling the motion picture rights.

The Southwest Manuscripters meets on the third Friday evening of each month, when speakers prominent in various branches of the writing craft are presented. A social coffee

Veterans and Auxiliary Hold Dinner

Veterans of World War I, Barracks of Torrance No. 1920, and the Auxiliary will hold a joint potluck dinner at 6:30 p.m. Monday with a social evening following.

All W.W.I veterans, their wives, sisters, and daughters are eligible for membership.

At a recent meeting Ralph Fritz was installed as commander of barracks and Mrs. Ruth Hines as auxiliary president.

Further information may be obtained by phoning Mrs. Ruth Hines, FA O-1965.

hour follows the program to help members and their guests become acquainted.

Both selling and beginning writers are welcome to join the group. Information about membership may be obtained by calling Mrs. Florence Hancher, secretary, at FR 2-2897.

'Palm Tree' Begins PV Two-Weekend Run Friday

"A Palm Tree in a Rose Garden" will open tomorrow evening for a two weekend run at the Montalaga Auditorium, Via Nogales, Palos Verdes Estates.

King Sawyers and Dick Jordahl, director and producer respectively, from Torrance, of the Palos Verdes Players comedy drama, have cast Betty Elliott as Rose Frobisher, a Hollywood apartment house owner who hopes to achieve fame through a young tenant.

Shirley Sawyers has the role of Rose's daughter, Lila; Helen Borst is cast as Mona Worth, owner of an apartment house next door and Rose's arch rival; Corinne Neumann plays the part of the young girl who sparks Rose's hopes, and Chase Delong her fiance. Maurice Windsor is seen as a middle-aged business man.

To celebrate Washington's birthday, Feb. 22, the Palos Verdes Players are offering a champagne and steak dinner at the Victorian followed by the presentation of "Palm Tree." The evening will cost $6 per person.

Tickets may be obtained from club members or at the door. Reservations for the Feb. 22 combined dinner and show may be made by calling FR 5-2365 or FR 9-2148. Curtain time is 8:15 p.m.

Heads Training

Fred C. Brosius, 1318 Font-hill Ave., will be in charge of the executive training activities of the California Apartment and Motel Managers Assn., which will be held at the group's newly purchased apartment building in Los Angeles. Brosius is executive director of CAMMA.

THE HIGHWAYMEN . . . Chan Daniels, (l to r) Dave Fisher, Gil Robbins and Steve Butts clown around during rehearsal for their appearance tonight at the El Camino College Gymnasium, at 8:30 p.m. Folksingers, The Highwaymen, began their career when students at Wesleyan University. Their recordings include "Michael" and "Cotton Fields." Tickets will be available at the door for $1.50, bleacher, and $2, main floor.
