been perfected for marking permanent, waterproof impressions on slick, hard surfaces to which gummed labels and ordinary inks won't stick. . . . A U. S. razor blade maker is launching a new type stainless steel blade that reportedly will last for 10 shaves; packs of five blades cost about 79 cents.

ONWARD, UPWARD—Sales of light and twin-engine aircraft to businesses and other customers continued soaring in 1962, an industry association has reported. Almost 7,000 planes, valued at $180 million, were sold last year; actually fewer craft were sold, but the dollar total was higher than in 1961. One area that shows increasing promise is air taxi service—usually between big airports in the same urban area, or for short hops to suburbs. These taxi services now can be found at about 600 air fields.

BITS O' BUSINESS—A record 1.7 billion pounds of foreign meats were shipped into the U. S. last year. . . . Americans are expected to spend more than $7 billion for cigarettes in 1963, topping 1962's record; exports of "smokes" will gain because of more active marketing in Asian and

Husband and Wife Team Chairman Cancer Fight

Making it a family fight against cancer, Mrs. Ronald Rich of Palos Verdes was today announced as the American Cancer Society's district residential chairman for the annual Cancer Crusade to be held in April.

Mrs. Rich's husband was recently appointed Centinela-South Bay district crusade chairman.

A mother of twin girls, age Latin American countries. . . . Hiring of British secretaries is said to be on the upswing in senior executive quarters. The theory: their accents lend "prestige," and they appear highly efficient.

8, and a 6-year-old boy, Mrs. Rich stated, "By working together, my husband and I can accomplish more towards making this year's Cancer Crusade the most successful ever. We feel that it is everybody's duty to do everything possible to help eradicate this dreadful killer."

The Rich family, which resides at 3221 Dianora Drive in Palos Verdes, will combine their efforts in recruiting and organizing volunteers in the Centinela Valley-South Bay area for the Cancer Crusade.

"In order for this year's Cancer Crusade to be a success many more volunteers are needed in all phases of the crusade's activities," Mrs. Rich stated.

City Parks Open Friday

The following Torrance city parks and playgrounds, except Los Arboles and Sea Aire, will be open Friday, Washington's birthday.

Arlington, Hickory, Jefferson, Madrona, Magruder, Newton, Parkway, Riviera, Seaside, Towers, and Victor School playgrounds; El Nido, El Retiro, La Romeria, McMaster, Paradise, Torrance, and Walteria parks. Supervised play will be offered at each park location from 9 a.m. to the regular closing time. School playgrounds will remain open on a 10 a.m. to 5 p.m. schedule.

From $1 school kits to $11,000 mobile health units, CARE delivers in the name of American donors the tools of education, health and livelihood.

Rabbi to Speak On Brotherhood

On the last Sabbath-eve of Brotherhood Month, Rabbi Bernard Wechsberg of Congregation Ner Tamid of South Bay will discuss "Brotherhood—Ideal and Practical."

Following the service, Mr. and Mrs. Mort Farberow will host the Oneg Shabbat in honor of the birth of their son, Stuart Michael.

Services will be held on Friday evening at 8:30 p.m., at the Redondo Beach Women's Club, 400 S. Broadway, Redondo Beach.
