MIKE'S THURSDAY MAILBAG Dear Mike: How can Mickey Hollywood film.

Bear Mike: How can Mickey Rooney work so much and still be bankrupt? Every time I turn on my TV set, there's that Irish kisser, so the dough must be POURING in on him! — Perry Nigro, Maywood, Ill.

Third, does Vivien Dear Perry: It pours out just as fast, what with child sup-port and alimony for his last four wives and supporting his present (fifth) wife and family. Leigh plan making more movies? I have just seen her in her play, "Tovarich," and love her in it? — Bill Barbilis,

Chester, Pa. Sir: I finally saw "What Ever Happened to Baby Jane?" Dear Bill: Miss Garbo, who will never make another movie (she says), lives at River House on East 52nd St. in New York City, Luise Rainer, who is now Mrs. Robert Knittel, has been somearing in plays in Vienne and Bette Davis was even bet-ter than in "Dark Victory" years ago! Now that this film is a frantic success, I hope Is a frantic success, 1 hope Hollywood will cast more of its greats — Claudette Colbert, Loretta Young, Vivien Leigh, Joan Crawford, Katharine Hep-hurn and Barbara Stanwock appearing in plays in Vienna. As for Vivien, you know as much about her as I do. Why don't you go backstage and ask her — and let me have the overlapice? burn and Barbara Stanwyck — in GOOD movies like this. Hollywood is back on the right exclusive? trail and I hope the producers take the hint from the success of "Baby Jane." Will they? — Gov McGuire, Sharon Hill, Pa. Dear Mike Is George Mont-gomery really as wealthy as I've read he is? — Roberta M. Prosser, Uncasville, Conn.

Dear Gov: It looks pretty good. The Warners are trying to team Bette with Joan Crawford in another movie. On the other hand, Liz Taylor is still the "hottest ticket in town" as far as most studios are con-cerned.

Davis Jr. and May Britt really happy together? Will she ever Dear Knov-It-All: Is it true that John Saxon wants to ap-pear in the movie version of James Baldwin's novel, "An-Dear Peggy: They are, from all appearances, very happy, since they now have two adopt-ed children in adition to their other Country," in the role of "Vivaldo"? — Marvis Reed, Fullerton, Calif.

But I'm afraid this story of sex and miscegenation is too strong in somehow can't believe that sh herself ever felt she DID!) be-cause she seems perfectly con-tent being just plain Mrs.
