. . . Ann Landers

(Continued from Page 37 and had two boys before I was 19. My husband (if you can call him that) started to chase with an older woman.

After three years of running around he asked for a divorce. I was sick of his cheating and lying, and was happy to be rid of him.

I had a wonderful opportunity to take a road job but it meant boarding out my boys. Mom and dad told me they would take the boys but only if they could adopt them legally. I agreed, seeing no other way out. Two years have passed and I'm through with the road job and am now settled in town. My sons, I'm sorry to say, are growing up like a pair of savages. They talk back to everybody and have no manners whatsoever. When I correct them my father says, "Shut up. These boys are mine." What can I do.

What can I do.

—HEARTACHES
Dear Heartaches: Very little. When you allowed your parents to adopt the children you signed away your rights as a mother.

Try to get the point across to your father that the boys need discipline and must learn to respect others or they will be a problem to themselves and to everyone else. If you can enlist your clergyman's help, I heartily recomman's help, I heartily recom-

To learn the booby-traps of teen-age drinking, write for ANN

FOUR GENERATIONS . . . Last Sunday when Mr. Bert Vilendrer celebrated his 85th birthday, there were four generations represented at the surprise open house. He is pictured here with his daughter, Mrs. Bertha Stanford, left; his oldest granddaughter, Mrs. Jeanne Johnson, and at right, his oldest great-granddaughter, Gail Johnson, both of Harbor City. (Photography by Stanfords)

LANDERS booklet "Teenage Drinking," enclosing with your re-quest 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed

Lomita Verde

CONVALESCENT HOSPITAL AND REST HOME

"The Home of Contentment"

Public cordially invited to inspect these new ultra-modern facilities MAA ACCEPTED STATE LICENSED

In Residence

MRS. HELEN B. HUDDY 2458 LOMITA BLVD. PHONE 326-8003

Surprise Open House Marks 85th Birthday

Bert Vilendrer, who was celebrating his 35th birthday on Sunday, March 17, was honor guest at a surprise open house given at the home of his daughter and her husband, wand March George I. Sten Mr. and Mrs. George L. Stan-ford, 2151 W. 253rd Place, Lomita.

Mr. Vilendrer has made his home in Lomita with the Stanfords for the past year. He lived most of his life in St. Paul, Minn., coming there when he was one year old from Erie, Mich., where he was born in 1878.

Besides Mrs. Stanford, the Besides Mrs. Stanford, the birthday celebrant has six other children, Mrs. Marguerte Lewis, Mrs. Viola Gulbratson, Mrs. Marie Strommer and Mr. Lloyd Vilendere, all of St. Paul; Mrs. Lorraine Goodman of Duluth, and Mr. Lcuis Vilendrer of Minne-

He also has 16 grandchildren and 26 great-grandchil-

Mrs. W. Jeffery and Mrs. Jernne Johnson, live in Harbor City.

The current physical fit-ness program, with hiking sweeping the nation, is "old hat" for this alert, active 85year-old. Exercise has always been his secret for staying young, and every day he hikes at least one mile.

Keeping busy, too, is another formula he has used. A tailor by trade, he still spends time sewing and tailoring, an interesting hobby. Mr. Vilender attends the St. Margaret Mary Church in Lomita.

Approximately, 85 friends attended Sunday's party to offer birthday congratula-

A huge decorated birthday cake, made by his grand-daughter, Mrs. Jeffry, centered the dining table. Since he was "king for the day," the birthday cake held a gold crown

Punch was served by Mrs. Johnson, a granddaughter, and a cousin, Mrs. Frances Steigh presided at the coffee

Hadassah To See Films

South Bay Chapter of Tuesday, April 2, in the Community Room of the American Savings and Loan Assn., 1959 Kingsdale Ave., South Bay Center. Election of officers for the coming year will be held during the business por-tion of the meeting.

The public is invited to at-tend the program for the afternoon which is scheduled to begin at 12:30 p.m. Two sound movies will be shown. Yehuda Bacon, one of Israel's foremost artists, sets the mood for "And Still They Come" with his own recollec-tions of his experiences in the dread Auschwitz, from age 13 to 16, and his rescue through Youth Aliyah, his ultimate adjustment through its timate adjustment through its sensitive, understanding program and his chance to live again, in Israel, "The Essence of it All" is a beautifully told story of the work being done in the new Hadassah Hospital in Israel, including cancer re-

Hostesses will be Mmes. Myron Katz and Frank Goetz.

Auxiliary Plans Dinner and Cards

Torrance American Legion
Auxiliary will entertain at a
spaghetti dinner and an evening of cards on Tuesday, March 26, at the American Legion Hall on Border Ave.
Dinner will be served from 6
to 8 p.m., followed by card
games.

The public is invited to at-

Join Husbands In Okinawa

Mrs. Gary Smith accompanied by Mrs. Don Andrews of Buda, Ill., left by jet March 5 for Okinawa to join their husbands, who are serving with the United States Army there.

The husbands were trans-ferred from Alabama to the South Pacific in November. Mrs. Smith has been visiting here with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Smith, 1717 service. Mrs. Jeffry cut and served the birthday cake.

Special guests at the party were the Rev. John Hegarty, pastor at St. Margaret's, Rev. Edward Boyle, chaplain at Little Company of Mary Hospital, and Dr. and Mrs. Melvin Andrews of Lo-

FOR CHILDREN IN FARAWAY LANDS . . . Brownies of Troop 312, sponsored by the Dianas, spent an evening recently stuffing toys for sick children, who will visit the SS Hope on its visits to faraway ports. The Dianas purchased the material for the toys and gave a check for $100. Admiring the toys, to be packed and shipped, are from left, Kathy Smith, 8, a Brownie, Mrs. Sheldon Goldensen, at whose home the girls worked, and Julie Goldensen, 8, another Brownie.

Money and Toys Donated

Council to Enjoy New Spring Hats

Women's Council of St. Philomena's parish will enjoy a "Madhatter Party," at their meeting on Monday, March 25, at 8 p.m. at the school hall, 21900 S. Main St., Torrance.

A business meeting will be held, followed by the party. Mrs. Mike Marincovich, president of the council, explained "We have made arrangements with a hat shop to bring us 100 hats, no two alike. There will be mirrors provided to give milady a chance to choose the most becoming Easter bonnet. The cost is nominal."

All women of the parish are invited. Coffee will be served during the party.

Meets Tonight

Golden Bear Council 17, Daughters of America, will meet this evening, March 21, at 7:30 p.m. at the Torrance Woman's Club, Stelma Norris will be in charge.

Dianas Begin Support For Project S. S. Hope

Redondo Beach Dianas, CFWC, Marina District, have joined with the General Federation of Women's Clubs in an effort to assist Project Hope. At the March business meeting, Dianas voted a $100 donation to be given to the project. This new Junior Woman's Club project will be carried through 1964 on a national scale. Project HOPE was founded by Dr. William B. Walch,

Student From Spain to Be Alum Guest

Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae will gather Tuesday evening, March 26, 7:30, at the home of Mrs. Earl Neff, 22042 La-deene Ave., Torrance. Pur-pose of the meeting is to in-troduce an exchange student from Spain to the group.

Senorita Araceli Blanco, frem Bilboa, Spain, is the honored guest of the evening. Mrs. Mary Bartholomew will arsist the 17-year-old student arsist the 17-year-old student in answering questions con-cerning the American Field Service and her life in Spain. Her father imports bananas from the Canary Islands and sells them in Spain. She is fluent in three languages, Spanish, English and French. Miss Blanco will attend North Miss Blanco will attend North

Miss Blanco will attend North
High in Torrance until June.
The Torrance Chapter of
the American Field Service
made the arrangements for
Mr. and Mrs. Robert Wolf to become Araceli's foster family. She now has an American sister, Patricia, 16, and a brother, Russell, 12.
Zeta Tau Alpha Alumnae
meets every fourth Tuesday
of the month. Each member is asked to bring canned soup
for the Los Angeles Indian for the Los Angeles Indian Center. Mrs. Neff may be called for reservations.

president of the People-to-People Health Foundation, Inc. He conceived the idea of a teaching Hospital Ship which could visit new developing countries in all parts of the world.

In February, members of Dianas voted money to pur-chase materials for making and stuffing about 60 toys, which will be sent to the S.S. HOPE for distribution to their young patients, some of whom have never owned a toy of their own.

Giving aid in stuffing the toys was Diana-sponsored Brownie Troop 812 of Torrance. Twenty Brownies devoted one meeting to this project. These toys were completed last night in a work. pleted last night in a work-shop in the home of Mrs. Sheldon Goldenson in Torshop in the home of Mrs. Sheldon Goldenson in Tor-rance. Assisting Mrs. Golden-son were Mmes. John Orr, James Mitchell and Miss Sara Mitchell, Mrs. Christ Saunders will pack and ship the toys this week.

Members and guests also viewed the 16mm color sound film on Project HOPE. This film lasts 28 minutes and is available without cost to church or service organiza-tions. Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Christ Saunders.

In San Francisco

Mr. and Mrs. R. R. Dexter and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Morton spent from Friday until Sunday in San Francisco.

• Tightness across instep and toe. te for a child's lack be made for a child's lack but if a meal stretches be-reasonable period it's wise love the food calmly and at comment. Once your tod-tarns that stalling will net aught, he'll mind his eating

· Wrinkled leath-

P.S. If you lightly sandpaper the soles of new shoes, you'll spi your slightly wobbly toddler tumble or two. Especially on slippery kitchen floor.

the 88c stores special week lly famous Fire-King Ovenware by Anchor Hocking Glass Corp. lous reductions. Use it to bake, is offered, for a limited time, at tremen teed for 2 years against oven breaks CRYSTAL CLEAR SQUARE CAKE PAN EACH 79e VALUE The World's Finest BAKING WARE

1423 MARCELINA, DOWNTOWN TORRANCE

Bank safety is more than the guard at the door.

A bank keeps your money safe-but not just by locking it up. Besides keeping large cash reserves, banks make careful investments. Banks invest in industry, in shops, in farms. They put money in auto loans, personal loans, real estate loans. It's the old principle of spreading out for safety. Safety which makes thousands of people choose one place for their savings: a bank.

BANK OF AMERICA