Carnival, Rodeo to Feature Rancho Days Celebration

A multitude of games, contests and a rodeo will highlight the eighth annual Rancho Days celebration in Torrance from July 31 through Aug. 4.

The celebration will be composed of two main parts — a carnival and a rodeo. The carnival will be staged on the east side of the Torrance Del Amo Shopping Center, between Carson Street and Sepulveda Boulevard.

Featuring the carnival will be 20 different rides and attractions and 15 booths manned by Torrance service clubs. Del Amo merchants are also distributing discount tickets for the various rides and a trip to Hawaii will await the holder of the winning raffle ticket.

MORE THAN 10 acres of parking space will be available for the carnival.

Sponsoring the carnival is the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce with past Jaycee president Robert H. Vroman coordinating the events.

THE RODEO will be staged on two days, Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 3 and 4. Sponsored by the Torrance Mounted Police, with Lt. Don Cook as coordinator, the rodeo is an official Rodeo Cowboy Assn. event.

From July 31 to Aug. 2, both rides and booths will be open at the carnival from 4 p.m. until midnight. On Aug. 3, booths and rides will remain open from noon until midnight. The carnival schedule for Aug. 4, the final day, is noon until 10 p.m.

On both Aug. 3 and 4, the rodeo will be run from 2:30 p.m. until 4:30 p.m.

Large Cast Assembled For Play

One of the largest casts in the history of the Theater Group, a professional company affiliated with the UCLA University Extension, has been assembled for the forthcoming productions of "Peribanez" and "Tis Pity She's a Whore."

The two productions will open Aug. 6 and 7, respectively, at the Schoenberg Hall theater on the UCLA campus. Named to the repertory company were 19 actors and actresses and several more technical workers.

In true repertory tradition, the actors playing major parts in the Lope de Vegas play, "Peribanez" will appear the next evening as supporting players in "Tis Pity She's a Whore," a 17th century drama by John Ford.

Ticket information for the two shows, to be performed on alternate nights through Sept. 29, is available by calling BR 2-8911 or GR 8-7578.

Gym Classes Included in Summer Fun

Tumbling and gymnastics for boys and girls are now under way at Waleria Park and at the North and South High gyms.

The Waleria Park sessions are held each Monday from 1 to 4 p.m. for children from six to ten years of age. Sessions at the high school gyms are held each Tuesday and Thursday from 1 to 4 p.m. Classes are open for boys and girls from 6 to 17 years old.

The programs at the high schools include parallel bars, rings, tumbling, rope climbing, games, and rhythmic drills. The Waleria Park program offers tumbling and physical fitness activities for the younger age group.

Young Democrats To Meet Sunday

Mrs. Trudy Owens, secretary of the Democratic State Central Committee, will be the featured speaker Sunday at a meeting of the Zenith Young Democrats in Lawndale.

The group will meet at 2 p.m. in the Lawndale City Hall, 16706 Hawthorne Blvd., to hear Mrs. Owens speak on "The Function and Future of the Democratic State Central Committee."

LOCK AND KEY . . . Miss Torrance, Marlane Norsoph, is escorted into the Hacienda jail by gun-toting Patti Campisi as the two young misses look ahead to Rancho Days, which will be celebrated in Torrance from July 31 through Aug. 4 with a carnival and a Rodeo Cowboys Assn.-approved rodeo. Co-sponsoring the event are the Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce and the Torrance Mounted Police.

RIDING HIGH . . . Along with a wild-west rodeo, the eighth annual Rancho Days to be celebrated in Torrance from July 31 through Aug. 4, will bring a carnival to the Del Amo Center. The carnival will feature rides and booths throughout the five-day celebration while Del Amo merchants will offer discount tickets for the rides. Over 10 acres of parking will be available.
