Reardon-Shepard Names Are Linked in Marriage

Rev. William J. Roleder, pastor of the First Lutheran Church, stood before a flower-banked altar on June 29 at 1 o'clock, to officiate at the double-ring marriage ceremony uniting Miss Paula Charlene Reardon and Richard James Shepard. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Reardon, 22305 Marjorie Ave. Parents of the bridegroom are Mr. and Mrs. Theodore Shepard of Long Beach.

On the arm of her father, the bride came to the altar wearing a Chantilly lace gown fashioned with a fitted bodice, bateau neckline and long pointed sleeves. The full lace skirt draped into a chapel train. A princess crown held the illusion veil and the bride carried a bouquet of white carnations encircling white orchids.

The bridal entourage included Sandra Johnson, maid of honor; Teddy Shepard, Sally Shepard, Roberta Hale, Annette Davis, and Linda Eakin, bridesmaids. They wore floor-length gowns of mint green taffeta and carried yellow carnations.

Debbie and Jeanie Fowler, in orchid net frocks, were flower girls.

Lawrence Shepard stood as his brother's best man. Ushers were Floyd Inman, Patrick and Michael Reardon, Raymond Campbell, and Ed Boulware.

Wallace Shepard sang "O Promise Me" and "The Lord's Prayer," accompanied by T. Allen, organist.

The reception was held at the Tasman Seas restaurant and the honeymoon was spent in Yucca Valley.

The new address is 1606 W. 257th St., Harbor City.

The bride was graduated from South High School in June. Her husband is a 1958 Banning High graduate.

YOUR PROBLEMS
by Ann Landers

'There's Nothing New About It...'

Dear Ann: May I have the last word in regard to the unfortunate girl who complained because she had a shape like an ironing board?

You told her to go to the lingerie store and buy what she needed. I thought your advice was top-notch but one reader wrote to say store-bought curves are dishonest and that such fakery is symbolic of the decay of American integrity.

May I tell you what happened when I was a ninth grade student, back in 1908? In those days the teachers wore white shirt-waists and form-fitting, ankle-length skirts. Our history teacher, Miss Smith, was tall and slender with no hips at all. Her long, straight skirts made her look seven feet tall.

One day she appeared in class with a beautiful figure. I was dying of curiosity—and being 10 years old I hadn't yet learned it was impolite to ask personal questions. So I asked. This is what she said, "I made myself some hip-pads which I tie around my waist. What God has forgotten I made up with cotton."

So, you see, there's nothing new about it.—SEA WILLOW

Dear Willow: Thanks for the fascinating piece of history, and a mighty catchy little couplet.

Dear Ann Landers: We are in our early 50s and this is the second marriage for us both. I've always held a responsible job and managed my money affairs well. When Leonard was widowed 10 years ago he turned over his financial matters to his eldest daughter. His wife always managed the money so his eldest daughter took over where her mother had left off. Leonard handed over his pay check to her and she paid all the bills and gave him an allowance.

We've been married four months and Leonard's daughter is still paying his bills and giving him an allowance.

I am very uncomfortable about this but don't know what to do. We are getting along fine and I don't want to rock the boat. Still this is like a bone in my throat.

Should I say nothing and (Continued on Page 10)
