

At Adli Swim School

St. James Parish To Sponsor Summer Party

Two St. James parish organizations, the Holy Name Society and the Women's Council have joined forces to stage a gala, fun-filled evening entitled "Shift Into Summer" on Friday evening, Aug. 16, at the Adli Swim School, 23444 Hawthorne Blvd., Torrance.

A limited number of tickets, which include snacks and dips, are available. Tickets may be purchased from any one of the following ways and means chairmen, Mmes. C. G. Ahmann, coordinator; John Thompson, north-side; Bernard Bois, Southwest Park; Richard Smisek, central; William Kuykendall, Southwood; Lester Lillywhite, South Redondo.

Gene Gauthier of the Holy Name Society may also be called for tickets.

"LIVIN' IS EASY" . . . St. James Parish organizations will "shift into summer" with a gala social evening on Friday, Aug. 16, at the Adli Swim School on Hawthorne Blvd. Checking out the party site are, from left, Mrs. Louis Bradvica and Mrs. William Kuykendall. Gene Gauthier of the Holy Name Society will be the emcee. Tickets may be had by calling any of the ways and means chairmen.

Ann Landers

Dear Ann Landers: That letter from the girl who didn't see why her parents should charge her room and board, even though she was 23 years old, and earning 75 dollars a week, really got my dander up. So she "didn't ask to be orn." That was some snappy comeback.

When I graduated from high school I handed over one-fourth of my paycheck to my mother. I grumbled a little and thought of all the extras I could be buying if I didn't have to pay room and board at home.

Three years later I had my big blue eyes opened up. I married a fellow who never had a responsibility in the world. He was an only child, plenty spoiled, and had always lived at home for nothing. To him, money was something to throw around. It was rough at first and if my training hadn't been any better than his we would have been divorced the first year. I finally taught him how to budget and now we are managing just fine.

Believe me, Ann, our children are going to be brought up like I was — not like my husband. I hope you print this. — S.G.

Dear S.G.: Here it is and I can only add a hearty "amen."

Are you going steady? Making marriage plans? If so, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Before You Marry—Is It Love or Sex?" enclosing with your request 25 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope. (C) 1963, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate.

MRS. JERRY HINKEY . . . Former Marie Buhman (James Weber Photo)

Buhman-Hinkey Nuptials Read at St. Catherine's

Miss Marie Buhman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Dwight M. Buhman, 4110 W. 177th St., became the bride of Jerry Hinkey in a 10 o'clock ceremony at the St. Catherine Labourer Catholic Church on June 22. Parents of the bridegroom are Mrs. D. Powell and Mr. George Hinkey of Anaheim.

Rev. Timothy Doyle officiated at the marriage and Mrs. Mary Hanf played the nuptial music. Mr. Buhman escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a floor-length Chantilly lace gown over satin. Nylon tulle ruffles outlined the hemline of the gown, encircled the apron effect panel at the front of the skirt and caught at the back waistline to fall into a chapel train. A seed pearl and sequin headpiece secured the illusion veil and the bride carried white orchids and stephanotis.

Miss Dianna Sinarid was maid of honor and the bridesmaids were Misses Patricia Buhman and Diane Petit. They were gowned in mint green satin sheaths with peplum overskirts. Each carried a bouquet of mint green carnations.

Susie and Sally Friedlander, in yellow frocks, were flower girls and Larry Joe Kuhn was ring bearer. Ronnie Thomas served as best man and ushers were Richard M. Buhman and Craig Hastings.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Big Sur and are now at home in Lawndale. The new Mrs. Hinkey was graduated from North High School. Her husband, an Anaheim High graduate, is serving with the United States Marines, stationed at Camp Pendleton.

Philharmonic Presentation 'Symphony by the Sea' Scheduled for Aug. 16

Bringing the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra to the Palos Verdes Peninsula for a concert has long been a dream of Mrs. Herbert Jones of Rolling Hills, and on Friday evening, Aug. 16, she will have the proud experience of seeing her dream fulfilled. With the noted Andre Previn, as piano soloist and conductor, first "Symphony by the Sea" promises to fill the 3,000 seats of the Marine-Land Sea Arena.

Those patrons sitting in the Gold Seal Section of the outdoor amphitheater are invited to attend a champagne reception at Marymount College given by the Peninsula Committee for the Los Angeles Philharmonic Orchestra, sponsors of the musical event.

Many civic and neighborhood groups have reserved blocks of seats and the midsummer concert will be well attended by the young people of the South Bay area. All seats are reserved and tickets in every price bracket are still available, according to Mrs. Lewis J. Ewing, ticket chairman.

Assisting Mrs. Joseph Siragusa, president of the Peninsula Committee for the Philharmonic, and Mrs. Herbert Jones, chairman for the "Symphony by the Sea," are Mmes. Ewing, Robert W. Williams, Peter Parfitt, Maurice Davies, Henry Garbanati, J. Glennon Cahill, Ludwig Zelt, Robert Ringle, and Robert Barrett. Assisting Mrs. William Hebenstreit with the reception are Mmes. Harper, Q. North, William Belding, John Cunningham, and Robert Garland.

Ticket information may be obtained by telephoning Mmes. Robert Roessler, Maurice Okum, Paul Sullivan or Kenneth Watts.
