A Few Offerings From The Fe-Mail Pouch

It's fe-mail time again and some of the letters are pretty rare.

"Dear Count Marco: Many serious-minded people such as myself believe that the plan you suggest in 'short-time marriage licenses' would solve many of our present-day social problems."
/s/ E.R.D."

That's why I wrote it.

"Dear Count Marco: You egotistical, hateful slob. Where would you dumb men be without us females? Do you mean to tell me you can sit there and write such stuff and get away with it? Not while I'm reading it."

"We should sit quietly and listen to our master talk? Bologney! I'll meet you any day and so will any of my sex and show you a thing or two."

"All men aren't dumb like you. I should know. I'm happily married to one. So I'm not bitter toward you dumb clucks. Stupid

you. /s/ Another Stupid Reader."

"I'm so glad you're not bitter and I want you to know you have the honor of being the only self-admitted stupid reader I have."

"Dear Count: Methinks you are an old codger living in the dear, departed past. The ladies you refer to must have lived in the Gold Rush days when the men spent a thousand dollars in one evening and headed for the hills the next day."

"Climb out of your time machine and come back and look around at the girls with their clear eyes, wholesome skin, and svelte figures. Really now, is there any comparison? The men of today know just what they are getting."
/s/ Bored Reader.

"P.S. They don't deserve it either."

You're so right. Head for the hills, men!

"Dear Count Marco: Who is the woman who bit off your nose to spite your face? /s/ Mrs. J.J.M."

The same type that whelped you.

"Dear Count Marco: I have always been a faithful reader of yours and I wish to express my appreciation for what you have done not only for myself but for the many women who do really care."

"You are a great inspiration to the women and the men of America and we do surely and sorely need you."
/s/ Grateful."

Yes, I know.

"Dear Count: I have treated all four of my husbands as a stewardess would. I'd like to see a husband who treats his wife like he treats a stewardess."

"All four of mine were far more interesting boy friends than they were husbands. While I feel you mean well, your advice is a lot of poppycock."
/s/ Sadly Educated."

Instead of flying high, better make your next trip on a slow boat to China. Obviously it's not a home and husband you want, but a bed and a man.
