Camp Fire Girls Aid Oldsters

Okita Jr. Hi Camp Fire Girls held their monthly birthday party for residents of the Fairmont Convalescent Home Friday. This monthly affair is but one of many services rendered the guests of the Convalescent by Junior Hi Camp Fire Girls of Harbor District during the summer months.

Throughout the summer these seventh and eighth grade girls have been spending an afternoon a week at Fairmont reading to patients, taking them for walks through the Convalescent and grounds, assisting with crafts and games, and performing many other services for these senior citizens, under the direction of Mrs. Dolores Davidson, director of Volunteer Services at the Convalescent.

THE CHEROKEE Group has assumed responsibility for tray favors or other decorations for holidays during the year, while the Okitas plan and hold a party each month for all the guests who have had birthdays during that month. The girls furnish table decorations, favors and tokens of remembrance such as combs and pens, and members of the Convalescent staff prepare the refreshments.

The elderly birthday guests seem to particularly enjoy their special party—and so do many other guests, who "drop in" for a piece of the birthday cake and a share in the festivities.

THE REACTION of the Convalescent guests and the Camp Fire Girls to this service project has been so favorable that the Camp Fire Girls plan to continue this volunteer work throughout the year, although returning to school will necessarily curtail the time they will have available.

The four Junior Hi Camp Fire Girl groups and their guardians participating in this project have been the Cherokees, Mrs. J. B. Goren; the Seminoles, Mrs. F. J. Chadek; the Klekas, Mrs. G. Miller; and the Okitas, Mrs. J. A. Davis.

The Okitas have also given over 40 hours of clerical help at headquarters of United Way, of which Camp Fire Girls, Los Angeles Area Council, Inc., is a service.

Bank After Friendliest Employee

Pacific State Bank customers in five Southland communities will have the opportunity in September to select a "friendliest teller."

Designed to test the effectiveness of the friendly approach to banking on which PSB's employees have been schooled, the contest will rate tellers on the basis of overall points in five basic categories.

Tellers will be rated on neatness, smile, courtesy, efficiency, and overall friendliness.

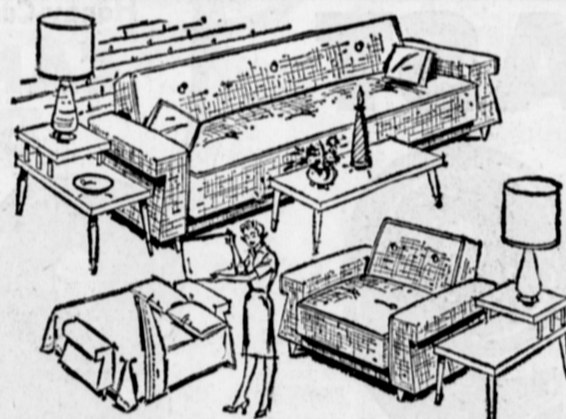

Top prize in the contest will be an all-expense paid weekend for two in Palm Desert. Second prize will be a dinner and show at the Coconut Grove and third prize will be tickets to special events.

Pacific State offices are located in Torrance, Hawthorne, Lennox, Windsor Hills and Rolling Hills Estates.

DFG Announces Quail Season

Quail season will run from Nov. 2, 1963 through Jan. 1, 1964, except in northeastern California where it will run from Nov. 2 through Dec. 15, 1963, the Department of Fish and Game announced recently. Statewide bag and possession limits will be 10 daily. A special additional mountain quail season will run from Sept. 28 through Nov. 1, about three weeks longer than last year, with a daily bag and possession limit of six.

For your next outdoor or indoor party, pass a tray of Mexican-style hors d'oeuvres. Prepare crisp frozen cocktail tacos according to directions. Arrange around a bowl of zippy California avocado dip. Mash or sieve avocado; season with onion, a touch of garlic, Tabasco and lemon juice. Serve with vegetable sticks. Garnish tray with radishes and ripe olives.
