North High Wins Five-Year Honor

North High School has been granted a full term of accreditation by the State Commission of Secondary Schools, according to a letter received by Dr. R. D. Guengerich, North High principal, from J. Wesley Berry, commission chairman.

The five-year term, which will expire June 30, 1968, is the maximum period of accreditation that can be granted to a high school.

The decision was based on an evaluation of the administration, faculty, and students made by a visiting committee representing the Western Assn. of Schools and Colleges. Their report was submitted to the commission.

"It is hoped that this report will be of significant value to the school in its continuing efforts to upgrade the educational program for the students which it serves," Berry stated.

"Please accept our congratulations on the quality of work being done in this school."

New Civic Symphony Season Opens Sunday

Ronald Romm, a Los Angeles resident, will be featured in the Civic Symphony concert Sunday afternoon. The concert will be given at Torrance High School Auditorium at 2:30 p.m.

Romm has played with the Civic Symphony before—at the age of nine years, to be exact. Romm, who plays the trumpet, has also been featured with the Long Beach Municipal Band, the Brass Society at the University of Southern California, and on numerous radio and television shows.

He will play "Andante and Scherzo" by Barat, and "A Trumpeter's Lullaby" by Leroy Anderson.

Another outstanding artist, John Ayre, will also be featured as a soloist. Ayre, who hails from Great Britain, will play the French Horn concerto by Mozart.

Civic Symphony conductor Elyse Aehle has chosen a varied program for the season's opening concert. Among the works to be performed are Haydn's London Symphony in D major, Rossini's "Barber of Seville," and Kamennoi Oostrov, often called "Russian Easter."

THE MUSIC of Richard Rodgers' "Carousel" will close the program.
