

Patricia McDonald Now Mrs. Frank Van Patten

St. Andrew's Presbyterian Church in Redondo was the setting for the three o'clock marriage ceremony, Aug. 18, when Miss Patricia McDonald, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. L. McDonald, 17419 Falda Ave., Torrance, became the bride of Frank Van Patten, son of Mrs. Jane Van Patten of Inglewood.

Rev. Paul Cox officiated at the marriage and Miss Violet Sprague sang "Because" and Wedding Prayer.

Mr. McDonald escorted his daughter to the altar. She wore a silk organza gown over taffeta. The scoop neckline, bodice and full skirt were enhanced with Alencon lace appliques. A lace and pearl petal headpiece secured the illusion veil and the bride carried a Victorian bouquet of carnations and roses.

Mrs. William Bartelson was her sister's honor attendant. She wore turquoise chiffon as did bridesmaids Misses Terri Sanders and Sina Osterberg and Mmes Gary Martin and Russ Woods. Their flowers were white carnations and roses.

Don Woods was best man and ushers were Gary Sanders, Dick Hedgecock, Carl Lewis and Jack Jacobsen.

A champagne reception followed at the Cockatoo Inn where Beverly Wons registered the guests.

The newlyweds spent a honeymoon at Lake Tahoe and are now at home in Westwood.

The bride, a graduate of North High and El Camino College, is employed by an Inglewood medical group.

Her husband, also a graduate of North High and El Camino, is a physical education major at UCLA where he is a member of the varsity baseball team.
