$25 Minimum For Unemployed

Unemployment insurance claimants who file new claims now will receive a minimum of $25 per week in benefits, instead of amounts ranging as low as $10 per week, Albert B. Tieburg, state director of employment, has announced.

The new minimum does not apply to claims now in force, and does not affect benefit rates above the new $25 minimum.

The first benefit checks reflecting the amendment to the Unemployment Insurance Code will be paid new claimants Oct. 7.
