Plants Take Part in Red Cross Class

An on-the-job safety class, offered by the Red Cross in cooperation with the National Safety Council, is being attended by representatives from two Torrance firms and the Harbor City Christian School.

Fire Department Captain Walter West, who serves as first aid chairman for the Torrance-Lomita Red Cross branch, named the following as participants in the 11-week first aid class restricted to representatives of business and industry.

Stanford L. Woods, shift foreman at the Rome Cable division of Alcoa; Dorothy Sharp and Maybelle Snyder, bus coordinator and vice principal respectively at Harbor City Christian School; and Lt. L. H. Beatty, officer of plant protection at the Torrance operation of Douglas Aircraft.
