For Elks Club Fund 'Gold Rush' Party Scheduled Oct. 12

A Barbary Coast atmosphere will prevail when the Gardena Emblem Club 257 and the Elks Lodge 1919 stage a fabulous turn-of-the-century event on Oct. 12 at 8 p.m. at the Elk's Hall, 1735 W. 162nd St., Gardena. Chairmen of the affair are "Diamond Lil" Zeigler and "Nugget Nell" Harris. Members of both organizations and their friends are invited to attend. The famous "Can-Can" Girls will be on hand to entertain throughout the evening. The golden voice of "Honey Bea" (Mrs. Gemo Yabukovsky) and Madame Fifi's girls will highlight the program.

Ticket buyers will receive "sham" money to be used in the games, for food and for the auction.

The Elk's Club will be elaborately decorated with reminders of the California "Gold Rush Days." The friendliness of the frontier will be exhibited as club members welcome guests who are asked to don "gold rush days" costumes.

Mrs. Donald Stemmmons and Mrs. Edward Miller are in charge of decorating. Tickets may be secured by calling Mrs. Dallas Harris or the Elk's Club.

All proceeds will go to the building fund for a new Elks Club building.

MADAME FIFI'S GIRLS . . . In the Barbary Coast atmosphere of the Gardena Elks club on Oct. 12, guests will hear the golden voice of "Honey Bea" and Madame Fifi's Girls. They are from left, Mmes. Gemo Yabukovsky, Marie Francia, Frank Duncan, Erwin Popp and Marvin Knapp. The public is invited to attend the gala party, proceeds from which go to an Elks club building fund.

Teens Will Assist With 'Fish Fry'

Torrance Teens will join with their sponsors, the Torrance Loyal Order of Moose and Women of the Moose, to put on the monthly Moose fish fry at the Moose Home, 1744 W. Carson St. Dinner will be served from 6 p.m. on through the evening. There will also be baked meat loaf for those who do not care for fish, according to chef George Clay, past governor of the Torrance Moose Lodge. The event will be held tomorrow evening.

At approximately 8 p.m. the Torrance Teens will hold a "Slave Auction" at which time members of the Torrance Teens services for a day or a part of a day will be sold to the highest bidder. Torrance Teens members will be available to do lawn work, gardening, painting, cleaning, ironing, laundry, or any other job their master for a day may have for them. The funds obtained from the auction will go to help the Torrance Teen Club with one of the benevolent projects.

The Torrance Teens is sponsored by the Moose Lodge to promote healthy activities and leadership training for teenagers of the Torrance community under adult guidance and advice. Membership is open to teenagers of the community upon recommendation of a member of the club.

Vel-De-Nez Begins Year

Fall meeting of the Vel-De-Nez Songwriters Club will be held Saturday evening, Oct. 12 at 7:30 at the home of the president, 24208 Alliene Ave., Lomita.

Feature attraction will be the appearance of the Hank Matthews Hillbillies with Frank Owens, lead guitarist.

The Hughes Sisters will sing their new song, "One Day At Calvary." Mary Stevens and Margaret Morales will play and sing several of their own compositions. A drive for new members is now underway and those interested may contact Henry Weaver, Sr.

Refreshments and door prizes will follow the program.

Torrance Lioness Club will stage its Progressive Dinner, with husbands as guests, on Saturday, Oct. 12. Plans for the affair were made at a meeting of the Lady Lions at the home of Mrs. Fred Boren on Oct. 1. Mrs. Cecil Powell, president, was in charge.

Cocktails will be served at the home of Mrs. William King, salads at the Rollin Smith home, entrees at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Smith and dessert at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ritchie.

The Lady Lions voted to assist their husbands with the annual White Cane Drive. They also attended a meeting of the North Redondo Lioness Club on Monday, Oct. 7.

Next business meeting of the Torrance Lioness Club will be held Nov. 5 at the home of Mrs. Robert Williams, 3128 Eldorado.

From Chicago

Marineland Restaurant on the Palos Verdes peninsula was the scene of a seafood dinner party marking the return of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Klemetson of Hollywood Riviera from a trip to Chicago, Ill. The party of four guests were musically entertained in the "Porpoise Room" by Red Nichols and his Five Pennies.
