Defense Preserves Knight Win

AROUND END... Jerry Leininger, Montgomery fullback, is stopped here by Lennox defenders Don Apodaca (87) and Frank Puzzuoli (22) as he sweeps around end for a short gain. Moving in is Montgomery end David Hunt to keep at least one tackler away from Leininger. Leminger and Carlos Thompson teamed up Friday to lead the Knights to a 13-7 victory over the Lennox Lancers. BMHS Stops LennoxRally

Only four games have been played by Bishop Montgomery in the 1963 football season and already the Knights have recorded their finest year in history.

LENNOX ground out 45 yards in 17 plays during its final, futile drive and reached the Knight five-yard stripe before being turned back.

Two incomplete passes and a rushing loss gave Lennox a fourth and nine situation on the Montgomery nine-yard line with 53 seconds left. Schlieve faded back to pass but was dropped by a horde of BMHS tacklers on the Knight 20-yard line and the threat ended

Junior sensation Bob Hanson took third in 9:15 followed by Tom Foley, 6th in 9:23; Dan LaCoe, 7th in 9:25, and Dave Ramsey, 8th in 9:26.

Leuzinger also suffered de-

Bell Routs Ineffective Narbonne

Ragged Narbonne remained without a 1963 football vic-tory Friday afternoon as Bell High earned a 20-0 non-league win in a Milk Bowl game.

Fourteen points in the sec-ond quarter were all Bell need-ed to hand the Gauchos their second defeat of the year against one tie. Just for in-surance Bell added another six points in the final period.

Three different men had their hand in the scoring for the winners while the inept Gauchos could not get a man across the goal line.

Lack of an offensive punch has bothered Narbonne all year. The Gauchos have tied Washington, 6 to 6, and scared Huntington Park before dropping a 20-14 nod. Except for the final five minutes against Huntington Park, Narbonne has yet to demonstrate a solid, consistent offense.

Jones-Led Seahawks Rip State

Deadly Harbor quarterback Ray Jones scored twice Friday night to lead the Seahawks in a 25-0 victory over the Los Angeles State junior varsity in a n-conference grid encounter.

Jones tallied on a nine-yard run and an 82-yard pass inter-ception to pace Harbor to its second straight victory.

Fullback Ben Del Bennes helped the Seahawks along with a 27-yard gallop and Char-les Shaw, a string-bean full-back, chipped in with a twoyard smash. Harbor started quickly, pushing 13 points across in the opening quarter and adding six points in both the third and fourth periods.

John Bjaevich accounted for Harbor's only point after touch-down in the first quarter. The Seahawks will open
