Mike's Thursday Mailbag

Dear Mr. C.: My boyfriend says that Bob Hope is a sexagenarian. I can't believe this about such a fine man.—Sally Jo Taylor, Pensacola, Fla.

Dear Sally Jo: He's just 60. That's what that means, dear.

Dear Mike: I won't watch "Ben Casey" any more. I simply refuse to because Vince Edwards has never sent me an autographed photo and I've written him twice.—Gerri Kettering, Lindenwood, N.J.

Dear Gerri: Have patience. He gets a lot of mail and could not possibly handle it personally. If he did, he's never had time to be "Ben Casey."

Dear Mike: Is Troy Donahue REALLY happy?—Norma McGovern, Nicoma Park, Okla.

Dear Norma: I THINK so.

Dear Sir: After reading all your raves about Barbra Streisand, I saw her with Bob Hope and on some other TV shows and thought she was, to put it plainly, awful. But then I saw her on the Judy Garland show and got her message—in spades! I'll never doubt you again, I promise, but please tell me why she was so good with Judy and so bad with the others.—Walter R. Morris, Fort Worth, Texas.

Dear Walter: Judy gave her more to do and also saw to it that she had good lighting and good direction.

Dear Mr. Connolly: What do you hear about Delores Hart, who left movies to become a nun?—Mary Lee Sullivan, North Adams, Mass.

Dear Mary Lee: Delores' close friends have been receiving beautiful, spiritual letters from her. She is very happy and hopes it will become her vocation. She has another nine months to go on her novitiate.

Dear Mike: Robert Goulet never comes to San Francisco.

Why not?—Sunny Graham, San Francisco, Calif.

Dear Sunny: That's all rectified. He goes into the Fairmont Hotel in your fair city in April.

Dear Mr. Connolly: Is the Gene Reynolds who directs "My Three Sons" on TV the same as the Gene Reynolds who was a child star in motion pictures? How old is he now?—Dorothy Gleason, East Moline, Ill.

Dear Dorothy: Yes, he's the same guy, Gene's 37. And that noise you just heard was my arteries—hardening!

Dear Mike: Someone said I'm a good type to play Tarzan in the movies. Should I drive out to Hollywood on my motorcycle and try to get the part—or would it type me?—Guy Beam, Mount Vernon, N. Y.

Dear Guy: What else have you been doing lately?

Dear Mike: We watch David Janssen in "The Fugitive" and think he's great. Will he be making any movies?—Alice and Herb Evans, Hermosa Beach, Calif.

Dear Alice and Herb: David is in 90 per cent of the action of these hour-long "Fugitive" shows so it isn't too likely. However, he is in "My Six Loves" opposite Debbie Reynolds, which is still playing in theaters around the country.

Dear Mike: How come more stars don't make personal appearances here in Pierre South Dakota?—George Moesme, Pierre, S. Dak.

Dear George: They claim it's too far out of the way. Maybe you should put in a spur line?

Dear Sir: Has George Maharis, that living doll, recovered from hepatitis?—Betty McDonnell, Fairmont, W. Va.

Dear Betty: Yes. Completely.

(Mike Connolly welcomes all readers' questions, but due to the large volume of mail received, it may be some time before the answer to your question appears in his column.)

Readings for New Chapel Play Start

Readings for "The Moon Is Blue," a comedy by F. Hugh Herbert, are being called by director Fred West for Monday and Tuesday, Oct. 21 and 22, at the Chapel Theatre, 4164 Pacific Coast Hwy.

Readings will begin both evenings at 7:30 p.m. Roles for a young lady of 21, and 20 to 30-year-old man are available. Also to be cast are a worldly bachelor of 40 and Irish-policeman-father of 40 years of age or older.

Newcomers are welcome to read and backstage workers are also needed. Rehearsals will start as soon as casting is completed for a Dec. 7 opening date. The play will run for five weekends, excluding the Christmas weekend.

St. Michael Senior On Gifted Program
Mona Frances Varro, 2608 W. 166th Pl., has been selected to participate in the advanced placement program for gifted seniors at the downtown campus of Mount St. Mary's College. She is a student at St. Michael's High School.

Eisenhower Will Lead Rose Parade

Former President Dwight D. Eisenhower will serve as the honorary grand marshal for the 75th annual Tournament of Roses parade on Jan. 1, Tournament President Hilles M. Bedell announced this week. "We are distinctly honored to have Gen. and Mrs. Eisenhower as our guests and lead the New Year's Day parade having the theme of 'Symbols of Freedom,'" said Bedell. "Most certainly General Eisenhower may be regarded as a living symbol of freedom the world over."

The Eisenhowers will arrive in Pasadena in time to take part in the numerous pre-tournament activities. They will occupy the place of honor in the guest's box at the 50th annual Rose Bowl game after the parade.

Hole-in-One to Mean Something To Area Golfers

Golfers who accomplish the goal of every player, a hole in one, at the new Dominguez golf course at 19800 S. Main St., will be rewarded for their accomplishments, says restaurant manager Glenn Billingsley.

For the lucky "acers" will be presented with a free cigarette lighter and free dinner at the new Dominguez restaurant at the course. The last linkmen to score holes in one both did it on the same night on the 120 yard par 3 No. 18 hole. They were Russell Yamaga of Torrance and Jerry Steinmetz of Inglewood.

Tickets for the program will go on sale tomorrow in the student store. Reservation of tickets, priced at $1.50 and $2 may be made by telephoning FA 1-1121, ext. 229.

Add bits of snappy chese to chopped, cooked vegetables heated with milk to make a tasty satisfying soup.

Versatility Curse Moans Local Author

"The Curse of Versatility" will be Charles Beaumont's subject at the Oct. 18 meeting of the Southwest Manuscript-ers, 8 p.m., at Clark Stadium, 861 Valley Dr., Hermosa Beach. Beaumont, novelist, TV and motion picture writer, includes among his credits four motion pictures and 15 scripts for Twilight Zone. His article on trains is in the current Playboy magazine and his new novel, "Remember, Remember" will be out in late October. Two other novels are scheduled for publication by Bantam. The Manuscripters may be obtained by telephoning Florence Hancher, secretary, FR 2-2897.
