mother, to protect your daughter against this hurtful thing. Be plenty emphatic and don't back down an inch.

Dear Ann Landers: I was married for twelve years to a happy drinker. The last three years of his life I supported him because he was too sick to work. He died in 1961.

Six months ago I married a very nice man who had never been married before. Warren is a fine person and he is very good to me. He is also wonderful to my nine-year-old daughter but he can't seem to warm up to my six-year-old son. My son is the image of his father and everybody remarks about it. I'm sure this is the reason Warren doesn't like the little fellow. His indifference to the boy is bound to create a problem between Warren and me unless something is done soon. Shall I discuss it with him? Please let me know what is best.—J.R.

Dear J.R.: Urge your husband to have a talk with your clergyman. If he hears from an unbiased third party that his feelings toward the boy are unjust and irrational, and that his marriage may be ruined because of his feelings, he'll listen.

If alcohol is robbing you or someone you love of health and dignity, send for ANN LANDERS' booklet, "Help for the Alcoholic," enclosing with your request 20 cents in coin and a long, self-addressed, stamped envelope. (Circle 10, Publishers Newspaper Syndicate.)

Dinner-Dance to Follow Marriage Vows Renewal

Advance registration figures released by a committee spokesman indicates that more than 200 Torrance husbands and wives will be present for a "renewal of marriage vows" ceremony and dinner-dance to be presented by the Holy Name Society of Nativity Church in the church and parish annex at 7 p.m., Saturday, Nov. 2.

Monsignor James Clyne, Archdiocesan superintendent of elementary schools, will begin this unusual evening's program by conducting a service in the church which will include the renewal of marriage vows and benediction, at 7 p.m. A catered dinner will be served in the parish annex at 8 p.m. Dancing to the music of Larry Noble and his orchestra will follow at 9 p.m.

A highlight of the evening will be the awarding of a "second honeymoon"—three days and two nights at the Hotel Sahara in Las Vegas. Other awards will be made to the oldest married couple and the longest married couple.

"The family and the home are the bulwark of society," according to the Rev. John Cremins, pastor of Nativity Church, in his endorsement of the program. "In the materialistic age in which we live, it is possible for even good Catholics to lose sight of the privileges and obligations God endowed through the contract of Christian marriage. This program gives us a good opportunity to reaffirm our convictions in this regard," Father Cremins concluded.

Reservations for the dinner-dance are being accepted by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph McCormick, 22815 Elm Ave., and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Cutcher, 1418 Amapola, Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Garvey will host the evening's program.

Confraternity Is Topic Of Chaplain's Lecture

The message delivered by Rev. William O'Toole, Chaplain of St. Catherine No. 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, was the highlight of the September business meeting held at Nativity Annex recently.

Father O'Toole spoke of the importance of Confraternity work within the parish; told of the new inquiry classes now being held at Nativity Church and urged each member to invite a friend to attend. He also stressed the importance of all members to attend business meetings regularly.

The first order of business was the acceptance of the transfer of Mrs. Grace A. Dennis. Mrs. Dennis is a former member of St. Isabella in San Pedro and will now be a member of St. Catherine.

Grand Regent, Mrs. Harvey Lee, informed the court of the District meeting to be held in Long Beach, Sept. 29. Court Marian was the hostess court, with the State Regent, Mrs. Fred Wettstien, presiding. Mrs. Lee also announced the monthly Harbor Hospital Ward parties would resume on Sept. 24, and asked for volunteers to help.

The World Mission Circle held a successful breakfast-bazaar in August, Miss Kathryn Shaughnessy, chairman, reported. As a result a check for $100 was sent to Dr. Herbert Sorenson, formerly of Torrance, for his hospital mission in Africa.

Mrs. Richard Ban, extension chairman, announced applications are now being taken for membership with initiation of new members planned for Nov. 21. Any practicing Catholic over 18 is eligible for membership and may contact Mrs. Ban. A beautiful silver service has been obtained by the court through the successful home parties individual members have held, stated Mrs. Ralph Sullivan, ways and means chairman. The members also voted to accept the plan Mrs. Sullivan explained for selling Christmas candles.

All members were invited to attend the Mass on Sept. 27 at 9 a.m. in Nativity Church in honor of the 50th Wedding Anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Heatherman. Mrs. Heatherman has been a member of St. Catherine for many years.

During the social hour following the meeting the court scrap books were enjoyed by members while coffee and cookies were served by the court officers, the hostesses for the evening.

Is that REALLY the same woman?

It is. Same dress, earrings and hair-do, too...but the pictures of this 43-year-old housewife were taken 6 months apart.

What made the big difference? What firmed those sagging contours that detracted from an otherwise pretty face? What made her look so much younger that it's hard to believe this is the same woman?

She didn't have her face lifted, or experience any significant weight change. What she did do was use the Zeigler Facial Exerciser...regularly, faithfully.

The Zeigler Facial Exerciser is a remarkable electronic unit that helps to stimulate facial circulation...gently exercises facial muscles that are beginning to sag as a result of normal processes of aging.
