

PTA The Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Perry Baker

THIRTY THIRD DISTRICT

Fall conference for Thirty-third District PTA members will be held Thursday, Oct. 24, 9:45 a.m. to 12 noon, at Millikan High School, 2800 Snowden Ave., Long Beach.

Mrs. Frank Snowden, program services chairman and member of the board of managers of the National Congress of Parents and Teachers, will speak on "PTA Targets." This is the first phase of the 1963-64 theme, "The PTA Focus on Targets, Techniques, and Timing."

Opening the conference will be an inspiring musical presentation by the combined Mothersinger groups from Bellflower and Downey councils. Another highlight will be a variety of musical selections by the Millikan High School symphony orchestra.

TOWERS

"Doorways to Song" will be the theme of Towers PTA when the association meets Tuesday, Oct. 22 at 7:30 in the school cafeteria. Plan to attend the sing-along and special music program under the direction of Mrs. Ethel Huntszicker.

HAMILTON

Rev. Maynard Midthum, pastor of Christ the King Lutheran Church, presented a slide lecture entitled "An American's Reaction to Europe," at the Hamilton PTA meeting last Thursday evening.

Hamilton's teachers were introduced by principal Dale Wickstrom, and Mrs. A. J. Stilwell, PTA president, presented members of the Executive Board.

Refreshments were served by the board members under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Funk and Mrs. R. J. Peet, hospitality chairmen.

PERRY

Perry Elementary School PTA will hold its annual Fall Carnival on Oct. 25 from 5 to 9 p.m. The festivities will take place at the school cafeteria.

Highlights of this year's carnival will be many food booths, lots of games, a cakewalk, a country store, where craft items and homemade articles will be sold. Another treat for those attending will be a chance to have a caricature done by "Bub" Thomas, who is well known by many in this area for his funny drawings.

Tickets for the various attractions will be available at the carnival.

YUKON

Yukon Elementary PTA will sponsor another polio and tetanus clinic, Oct. 22 at 6:30 to 8 p.m. in the school cafeteria, 17815 Yukon, between Artesia and 182nd streets.

Yukon PTA's carnival theme is "A Mad Hatter's Dream." A contest for the craziest hat will be the main feature, so wear your craziest hat and join the fun. Booth games include baseball throw, bean bag pitch, cakewalk, ping-pong roll, goldfish toss, and fish pond. There will be a freak and spook show and cartoons.

The public is invited to the affair, Oct. 25, 6 till 9 p.m.

RIVIERA

The first in a series of grade level Parent Education meetings will be held Wednesday morning, Oct. 23, at 9:30 a.m. in the Riviera School cafeteria. The discussion will center around the situations encountered by the 7th and 8th grade students.

MEADOW PARK

A welcoming luncheon for new and returning teachers was given by the Meadow Park PTA Executive Board on Sept. 10 in the school cafeteria.

New to the faculty are Frank Tyrrell, vice principal, and Mrs. Sandra Epp, Miss Collette Hess, Miss Janet Wilson, Mrs. Bonnie Isbell, Miss Mary Dachsteiner, Mrs. Roxy Battles, Miss Helen Waller, Mrs. Barbara Johnson, Miss Margaret Merriman, Mr. Galen Bagley, Mrs. Jeane Wong, Mr. William Maguson, teachers.

The first board meeting was Sept. 19.

PTA

223RD STREET

Spooks and goblins are getting ready for the Halloween festival to be held at the 223rd Street School from 11 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. on Oct. 26.

For young and old folks alike there will be a Spook House, the Johnny Strong circus featuring Neena, the baby elephant, and games with prizes.

At 11 a.m. there will be a parade with prizes given for the prettiest, funniest, scariest and the most original costume.

The general store will have all kinds of white elephants and there will also be a bake sale.

"Spooks Skadaddle" is sponsored by the 223rd Street PTA and is the one big way and means project of the year. The public is invited.

Fleming

"Current Problems in the Los Angeles City Schools" is the topic to be discussed by Dr. Dave Schwartz at the Oct. 22 meeting of the Fleming Junior High School Parent Teacher Assn.

Dr. Schwartz is highly qualified to discuss this very important subject. He has been with the Los Angeles City School system since 1937 as teacher, vice-principal, and principal on the Junior High School level. Since July 1962, he has been a Secondary Administrative Coordinator. He taught a Summer School workshop at U. S. C. on "Junior High School Problems."

St. Philomena Carnival Set

Children of St. Philomena School will present their annual School Carnival on Sunday, Oct. 27, from 1 until 6 p.m. On the school grounds at 21900 S. Main St., there will be games, booths, baked goods, white elephant sales and fun for all ages, especially grammar school children of the area.

Mrs. Mike Marinovich announces a "Dime-a-Dip" dinner to be served at the school hall from 2 until 5 p.m. Over 100 homemade dishes will be available at a dime a dip. The

Auxiliary Elects New Officers

Southwood Little League Auxiliary elected new officers at its meeting Oct. 3 at the Anza School on Ellinwood Dr. Named to direct the activities for the coming year were Mrs. Robert Thurston, who succeeds Mrs. Thad Males as president. Other officers are Mmes. Bob Gibson, vice president; Steve Haston, secretary; Edith Farrar, treasurer; Ed Subilosky, purchasing agent; and Ralph Isham, ways and means.

The public is invited to attend the carnival and dinner for which reservations are not necessary.

Vice Regent Named By Catholic Daughter Unit

Mrs. Felix O'Reilly was elected to fill the office of vice regent of Court Our Lady of Victory, CDA, made vacant by the resignation of Mrs. Teresa Fajen, at the September business meeting. Mrs. O'Reilly will retain her position as world mission chairman.

Spokesman for the Court, Grand Regent Mrs. Laura M. Dupont, also made announcement of new committee chairmen, Mmes. Noel Riner, hospitality, and Raymond La-Marca, home chairman.

Ten members, transfers from Court Isabella of San Pedro, which has disbanded after nearly 40 years, were welcomed into the South Bay Court. They are Mmes. Alice Bohrer, Walter Brunnick, Thomas Dietrick, Ressedill Despal, Charles Derrickson, Edward Koerber, Margaret Kreider, John Lind, Martin Sidlo, and Carl Stewart.

Mrs. Brunnick is junior past grand regent of Court Isabella, and has been appointed sunshine and telephone chairman for the group.

Committee reports revealed that one hand-made stuffed toy per member will be donated to the Long Beach Veterans Hospital gift shop; the Court will attend an annual Mass on Oct. 20, followed by breakfast; and that a Halloween social is planned for members and guests.

To continue support of the Court's many philanthropies, ways and means co-chairmen, Mrs. Stacy Rodman and Raymond Slick, outlined and won Court approval to participate in a Sunday Pancake Breakfast and the Community Club Awards program.

Mrs. Richard Abshear was appointed general chairman for the Christmas Fair scheduled for Nov. 30, the main fund-raising project for the group.

The surprised birthday member for the month was Mrs. Willard Phippen who received a beautifully decorated birthday gift.

Hospitality hostesses of the evening included Mmes. Wesley Muzik, Stella Dionysius, Adrian Engel, Sam Estes, Frances Etter, Charles Fischer, Stella Gannon.
