

ROLLING HILLS PLAZA

CRENSHAW AT PACIFIC COAST HIGHWAY

To Deliver UN Officer Memorial

The fourth annual Harry A. Shuder memorial address will be presented by Charles Hogan Nov. 1 on "United Nations Current Issues." Hogan will honor Mr. Shuder, first minister of the Pacific Unitarian Church and former Rolling Hills resident, at the San Pedro YMCA, 921 S. Beacon, at 8 p.m., according to Charles H. Lawrence, chairman of the church memorial committee.

CHAIRMAN of the United Nations Technical Assistance Committee, Hogan's background includes degrees from the University of California and Oxford University, England; teacher of philosophy at University of California; service in U. S. Embassy, London, member of UNRRA, and assistant to Rep. Helen Gahagan Douglas.

Tickets for the address are $1.50 donation for adults and 50 cents for students. Reservations may be made with Mrs. David Mannick, 2705 Robinson Rd., Redondo Beach, FR 4-3651. Proceeds will be used to assist in establishing a church library and minister's study in the church being constructed on the Palos Verdes Peninsula. Services are now being held at Miraleste School Sundays at 10:30 a.m.

Airman 2/e William J. Verburg has arrived at McGuire AFB, N. J., for assignment with a Military Air Transport Service unit following a tour of duty at Misawa AFB, Japan.
