Mike's Thursday Mailbag

Dear Mike: Isn't June Allyson going 'way out of her class by marrying that barber? — Jane Purcell, Clarks Summit, Pa.

Dear Jane: What's wrong with marrying a barber? Haircuts are much cheaper that way.

Dear Sir: I saw that "Sirens, Symbols and Clamor Girls" special on TV and wondered what some of those wonderful old stars are doing these days. Like knitting, maybe? — Mrs. Iris Higgins, Pittsfield, N.H.

Dear Mrs. Higgins: Knitting, my eye — haven't you heard that old saw about once an actress always an actress? Gloria Swanson and Lillian Gish will be seen on TV's "Hitchcock Presents" in December, Joan Crawford is coming up with a movie ("Strait Jacket"), and a "Tventure" ("Route 66"), and Pola Negri is shooting "The Moon Spinners" for Walt Disney in Europe.

Dear Mr. Connolly: I notice that some of those old movies on TV are shown "by popular request." I would like to see some of Danny Kaye's movies again. Does one write to the studio, or simply hope—Rowena Gurner, Palo Alto, Calif.

Dear Rowena: In Danny's case, neither. His old producer, Sam Goldwyn, refuses to sell them to TV. And Sam may be right — as witness the way in which another of his oldies, "Wuthering Heights," is mopping up at the boxoffice in its umpteenth reissue.

Dear Mike: Is it difficult to get into The Joan Crawford Fan Club?—Bill Hurley, West Palm Beach, Fla.

Dear Bill: No, it's easy.

Dear Mr. C.: I read where Robert Goulet was madly in love with Jill St. John. Isn't his wife mad that Jill is with Robert in his new movie, "His and His"?—Savilla Forbes, Eureka, Ill.

Dear Savilla: His wife isn't mad. Besides, they weren't madly in love." They merely dated a few times.

Dear Mike: What has become of Gogi Grant? Why doesn't she make some more records and appear on TV? Or is a REALLY good singer who sings songs with melodies and sticks to those melodies out of date these days?—R. Thomas, Peoria, Ill.

Dear R.: Gogi isn't that anxious to work. She's married to a wealthy Beverly Hills lawyer, Robert Rifkind, and does only the shows she wants to do.

Dear Mike: Why don't you ever write about Shirley MacLaine? Are you still mad because she took a poke at you? I should think you would forget it — and remember she is one of our biggest stars! — C. B. Wolf, Adrian, Mich.

Dear C. B.: I've never been mad a Shirley, just sorry for her. And I'm writing about her now, right? You're right, she's one of our biggest and I hope some day she'll come out swinging and show that she can carry a picture on her own without the aid of Frank Sinatra, Jack Lemmon, Bob Mitchum, etc.

Dear Sir: Is David Swift, the director, the same David Swift who created the best TV series of all time and I do mean "Mr. Peepers"? What is he directing now, if he's the same Swift?—Mary Hennessey, Atlanta, Ga.

Dear Mary: Yep, he's the same. He recently directed a movie, "Under the Yum Yum Tree," and is now doing another, "Good Neighbor Sam," starring Jack Lemmon.

Dear Mike: I just love that Bobby Vinton. When will he be here?—Viola Ebbert, Holyoke, Mass.

Dear Viola: Bobby opens at Blnstrub's in Boston on Nov. 18 for one week.

Dear Mr. Connolly: Is Paul Gregory married to Janet Gaynor? — Maurice Burgin, Deer Island, Ore.

Dear Maurice: No, they're good friends and co-producers of the upcoming play, "War and Peace."

(Mike Connolly welcomes all readers' questions, but due to the large volume of mail received, it may be some time before the answer to your question appears in his column.)
