

'It's A Matter

.

Of Custom . . . ' Dear Ann Landers: Several of us young married women were discussing a variety of were discussing a variety of subjects at sewing circle last Wednesday and we wound up in a terrible argument. Can you give us your ideas on this subject?

subject? Is it proper for a mother to nurse her baby in public—say on a bus, a park bench, in a theater or in a restaurant? Two of the girls were vehe-ment in their ensigner that ment in their opinion that only an evil-minded person would think this was wrong. They claim there is no sight beautiful in all the world than a mother nursing her baby. Others of us believe that nursing a baby in public is vulgar and only a very ignor-ant person would do it. How ou feel about this? - do you feel about this? — HEAVY DEBATE Dear Debate: This is not a matter of right or wrong, ig-norance or vulgarity — it's a matter of custom. In our society it is not con-sidered good taste to nurse a baby in a public place.

Dear Ann Landers: I've been offered a promotion but my wife doesn't want me to accept it because it means moving to a city where my ex-wife and daughter live.

Although our divorce was a bitter one my ex-wife and 1 are now on friendly terms. We speak on the long dis-tance telephone often about matters of sector. matters of mutual concern. I've been paying stiff alimony and support for eight years but I feel it is my moral obli-gation and I'm not complaining. Every year since the di-vorce I have gone to celebrate my daughter's birthday with her. This provokes annual fireworks from my wife. When I attended my ex-father-in-law's funeral last year my wife was enraged. You have frequently said in your column that a good wife should do whatever she can should do whatever she can to help her husband get ahead. I like your expression "She should go where the grapes grow." Will you repeat it please? —ARNOLD

-ARNOLD Dear Arnold: If the grapes are growing in a patch of poi-son ivy I don't believe it's worth it.

Multiply by 1,000 times the trouble you are now having because of your wife's resentment to your first family. You'll then have a vague no-tion of what life will be like if you all live in the same city. In my opinion, Bub, no grapes are worth it. 055

1) •

Dear Ann Landers: My cousin is 40 years of age. She is attractive, well-educated and has a charming person-ality. Her husband passed away five months ago and she is inter beginning to come she is just beginning to come out of her grief and enjoy living again.

I have three friends (two widowers and a bachelor) who would be just right for her, but I don't know how to go about fixing her up. The problem is that because we know each other so well these men just can't see the forest for the trees. How can I get them to take her out without being too obvicus? Please give me a hand with this project. —

S.A.Q.

0

.

FOR THE HOLIDAYS... Garden Section members will lend their talents to making Christmas candles and decorations to be placed on sale at the Woman's Club Bazaar, Nov. 20 at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia. Working on their holiday items are, from left, Mmes. Ronald L. Rudy, James G. Laird and E. C. Moudy. A public luncheon will be served during the bazaar. (Herald Photo)

At Torrance Woman's Club Christmas Bazaar Slated for Nov. 20

Heralding the arrival of the holiday season will be the annual Christmas Bazaar to be staged by the Torrance Woman's Club on Wednesday Nov. 20 at the clubhouse, 1422 Engracia. Mrs. R. E. Moffitt is serving as general chairman of this year's bazaar.

chairman of this year's baza Doors will open at 10:30 on a wonderland of gift items made by club members. A luncheon will be served to the public from 11 am. until 2 p.m. Mrs. D. J. Thomsen, who is serving as chairman of the luncheon may be Mrs. F. M. Shaw will be in charge of the arts and crafts booth, and Mrs. Roy Apsey is supervising the Christmas decorations sale. The Torrance Junior Wo-man's chub will heve a candu man's club will have a candy booth at the bazaar.

of the luncheon, may be called for tickets, which will also be available at the door. After the luncheon, guests may browse through the gaily decorated booths. Mrs. Alma decorated booths. Mrs. Alma Smith is serving as chairman of the baked goods booth, which will be filled with homemade cookies, breads, cakes, and pastries. The white elephant booth is being supervised by Mrs. E. L. Snodgrass.

Snodgrass. Also on sale will be used books from a booth under the direction of Mrs. W. L. Norman.

Guild Meeting Ladies Guild of the Central Evangelical Church will meet Wednesday, Nov. 13, at 10:30 a.m. in the guild hall, Marcel-ina and Arlington. Mrs. Katherine Lane will conduct the business session. Mrs. Alice Spehegir is host-

NOVEMBER 10, 1963

A committee represent-classes are asked to con-tact Mrs. Linda Lawten Pierce or Mrs. Diane Tri-

At Mormon Church Nov. 15

Relief Society To Stage Country Fair

The preserve shop and the bake shop will offer for sale homemade jams, jellies, pre-serves, cakes, cookies and other items made by the women of the church.

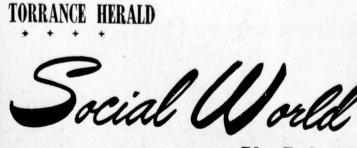

With the gift-giving season just around the corner, fair-goers will have an opportun-ity to purchase handmade gift items, also the work of the church women.

There will be fun for tots, teenagers and adults. Numerteenagers and adults. Numer-ous contests such as pie eat-ing, hog calling, whistling and bobbing for apples will enter-tain all. Children will especi-ally be attracted to the ice cream packer will describe cream parlor, gaily decorated with balloons, where banana splits and sundaes will be served.

Also on sale will be children's clothing as well as an array of white elephants. The public is invited to at-tend the "Country Fair."

Robards-Hammack Vows Read in Catholic Rites

In a two o'clock ceremony at the St. Lawrence Martyr Catholic Church on Saturday, Oct. 26, Miss Nancy Susanne Robards, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William C. Robards, 3310 Sonoma St., exchanged her marriage promises with Thomas E. Hammack, Jr. Parents of the bridegroom are

Edna Cloyd, Editor

11

HOMECOMING REMINDER . . . Indian Princesses of the Cherokee Tribe, representing the Gardena YMCA, perform an Indian Rain Dance before members of the El Camino Col-lege Faculty Wives. The dance served to rem ind the Wives group of its Homecoming Game dinner in the Campus Center, Nov. 23.

League Will Faculty Wives Event Homecoming Dinner Meet Locally Planned at El Camino On Nov. 27 La Leche League, International of Torrance, will hold

Faculty wives of El Camino College will sponsor a family Homecoming dinner at 5 p.m. Nov. 23 in the Campus Center. Husbands and chil-dren will participate in the pre-game event, the first of its kind on the ECC campus. Following the dinner hour, families will join students and community football en-thusiasts at Murdock Stadium, where the annual Homecom-

Sherman Nathanson, 22406 Susana Ave. The League emphasizes the normal and natural way of feeding babies, where the annual Homecon reviving the "lost art" of ing Parade will highlight pre-game ceremonies. Decorated floats will begin their en-circlement of the field behind the Homecoming Queen and her court breast feeding but recognizes that social pressures of these times can cause difficulties for the inexperienced. The her court.

importance of helping a To emphasize the Novem ber event, Indian Princesses of the Cherokee Tribe of the Gardena YMCA presented an Indian Rain Dance at the Wives' October dinner meetmother gain confidence in her own ability is recognized and the League will help her to find workable solutions on a mother-to-mother basis, The League also offers its ing at a Torrance restaurant experience and service to pro-fessional and non-profession-al groups working in or inter-ested in the field of maternal Additional programs sched-uled for the year were previewed by members of the group, who depicted the theme of each month's pro-gram in appropriate costume. Presiding over the Faculty care. Anyone wanting more information may call Mrs. Nathanson or Mrs. Roger Erickson.

Wives Club this year is Mrs. Norman Kadison of Torrance. Other officers are Mmes. Edwin Pinkston, Lawndale, vice president; Jack Wolf, Inglewood, corresponding sec-retary; W. A. Kamrath, Re-dondo Beach, recording secretary; William T. Mooney, Jr., Torrance, treasurer, and Stuart E. Marsee, Torrance, advisor.

Primary project of the group is the annual presenta-tion of scholarships to out-standing students of El Ca-mino College.

Local Girl Named To Student Office

Juanita Watson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Norman B. Watson, 5501 Via Del Valle, Torrance, has been inducted as Student Body Religious Co-ordinator at Marymount Col-lege. lege.

Miss Watson, a junior this year on the cliffside campus, will hold the office for the academic year 1963-64.

GWEN PATTISHALL . . February Bride Pattishalls Announce Engagement

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Patts-shall, 1941 Middlebrook Rd., shall, 1941 Middlebrook Rd., this morning announce the engagement and wedding plans of their daughter, Gwen, and Dennis L. Craw-ford, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dan Crawford, 5103 W. 123rd Pl., Hawthorne Hawthorne.

The bride-elect was gradu-ated from Torrance High School in June 1960 and El Camino College in June 1963. She is employed as a secre-tary by the Columbia Export

Her fiance attended El Ca-mino College following his graduation from Hawthorne High School in 1960. He is an electronic apprentice at Hughes Aircraft, El Segundo. The wedding will be sol-emnized on Feb. 2, 1964, at the First Christian Church in Torrance.

WSCS Asks Public To Hear Talk

Women's Society of Chris-tian Service of the First Methtain Service of the First Meth-odist Church extends an invi-tation to the public to attend their meeting on Thursday, Nov. 14, at 11 a.m. at the church, 1551 El Prado, to hear the guest speaker, James Blaine of the All-Nations Foundation in Los Angeles. The sneaker's tonic will be

The speaker's topic will be in keeping with the WSCS study of the book, 'These Cities Glorious' dealing with the challenge made to the churches by the changing city churches by the changing city. All Nations Foundation, represented by Mr Blaine, is located one block from skid row in Los Angeles, an area noted for crime. As its tools to combat delinquency, the Foundation uses club groups, athletics, dramatics, enter-tainment, crafts and Chris-tianity. tianity tianity. Mr. Blaine, assistant execu-tive director of the Founda-tion, received his AB degree from Chapman and his mas-ter's in social work from USC. He has been with the Foun-dation since 1938 and is the father of three children. After the program, a lunch-eon will be served by M a ry Circle.

Circle

Relief Society of the Church beverages and cones.

of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, Redondo Ward, will sponsor a "Country Fair" on Friday evening, Nov. 15, at the church, 220th and Cabrillo.

The traditional "County Fair" will be duplicated from 6 to 10 p.m., complete with the "wheel of fortune" and many shops typical of all fair-records grounds.

rounds. The hot dog stand, always a popular spot, will be well stocked with hot dogs, chili, barbecue burgers, desserts, miew McFall to assist in lo-cating class members and work out reunion plans.

Pedro. Members of these two

Classes Plan

1964 Reunion

ing the North High School graduating classes of 1956 and 1957 is planning a reunion in the form of a dinner-dance to take place Saturday, May 9, 1964, at the Hacienda Hotel in San

Dear S.A.Q.: If you want to ruin the woman's chances for all time, just make her a "project." This will finish er permanently. It is always a bum idea to try to fix up a widow with men who have known her for years. They are aware that she is alone, and if they're in-terested, they'll call her with no cues from the peanut gal-lery.

lery. The best thing you can do for your cousin is to include her in parties as you did when her husband was living.

ber husband was urving. Ann Landers' frank and informa-tive new book. "Feer-Agers and Sex" (232) Jone available at you with your problems. Send them you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspape-enclosing a stamped. self-addressed

Bride's Guide." ANN LANto Ann Landers

MRS. THOMAS E. HAMMACK, JR. At Home in Herm (Portrait by Seeman)

Mr. and Mrs. Thomas E. Hammack, Sr., 2267 Torrance Blvd.

The bride came to the altar on the arm of her father. She wore a traditional wedgown of white peau de detailed with a Sabrina ding neckline appliqued with Alen-con lace, long pointed sleeves, and a full skirt of the peau de soie enhanced with Alencon lace appliques. The skirt fell into a chapel train. Her full French illusion veil was secured by a circular crown of peau de soie, lace and pearls. The bride carried a cascade of white roses and stephanotis

Miss Georgia Trammel was the maid of honor, wearing Kelly green satin. Bridesmaids were. Misses Sharonne Patricia Piercey, Mascola, and Susan Hammack. Their gowns were of royal blue satin. Each attendant carried a bouquet of white carnations. Joe H. Clevenger stood as his brother's best man and ushers were Richard Ensch, Jack Taylor, Gilbert Arm-strong and Michael Robards. Rev. John O'Bryne officia-ted at the marriage ceremony. The 200 wed ding guests attended a reception at the Jump'n Jack restaurant. Miss Laura Gregg was in charge of the bride's book.

the first in a series of meetings, "The Advantages of Breastfeeding to Mother and Baby" on Wednesday, Nov. 27 at 8 p.m. in the home of Mrs.

The newlyweds are now at home in Hermosa Beach fol-lowing a Palm Springs honey-graduated The bride was from Torrance High School in 1962 and attended El Canino College. Her husband is a graduate of Torrance High and Long Beach State College where he was a member of the Sigma Alpha Epsilon fraternity.

A PROGRAM PREVIEW ... When the Torrance Junior Woman's club holds its regular meeting Wednesday at 8 p.m. members will be entertained by two local women who recently opened a gift and floral shop. The two artists will demonstrate floral arrangements with fresh and artificial flowers. Plotting the program are, from left, Mmes. Don Wise, Clyde Haslet and Howard Altermatt, known as "The Girls," and Carl Messmer, program channes. smer, program (Herald Photo)