

IMPORTED SPLENDOR . . . This Empire evening gown in Kandelaft gold and silver metallic brocade, imported from France, will be one of the many new long elegant gowns shown in the Vogue pattern and fabric show at the May Co. South Bay store on Nov. 11. Women of the South Bay are invited to attend the shows, one at 2 p.m. and another at 7:30 p.m.

Long Elegant New Look

Vogue Fabric Show At May Co. Nov. 11

May Co, will present its semble with an overskirt of 1963 Vogue Fashion-Fabric floral brocade. show featuring the completely floor length collection at its local May Co. South Bay store on Nov. 11 at 2 p.m. and again at 7:30 p.m. in the Sportswear Dept. on the second floor.

The season's newest trend, the long floor length gown, will be shown in the marvelous combinations of colors in the imported brocades, stains, chiffons and velvets. Winter pink is one of the colors which becomes excitingly new which becomes excitingly new when mixed with brown vel-vet, with silver or with gold and green.

The May Co. believes in "going gala" and "going long" whether it's to an important ball, opening of the opera, to a formal dinner party or entertaining at home

The return of the pajama for at-home entertaining is perfect for the California way of life. In the May Co.'s pre-sentation is the brilliant blue satin blouse and pants en-

Generally speaking, the lines are simple and straight forwardly elegant so that the fabrics can be shown to best advantage. For example, the casual shirt dress is extended to the floor and dressed up for at home entertaining in a shimmering gold and silver shimmering gold and silver metallic on white French matelasse. The evening coats are always full and fur and braid trim add a dash of glamour to a very chic wool evening cape. Even the jumper has gone gala, worn with a two layer chiffon blouse.

Another daytime costume turned gala for evening is the pink and silver brocade dinner suit worn with a softly feminine chiffon blouse.

Noted couturiers, responsi-

Noted couturiers, responsi-ble for many of the original designs of floor length elegance, have made their designs available to Vogue Patterns, who are represented in this outstanding collection.

PTA

Torrance Council Way

Mrs. Perry Baker

COUNCIL

In keeping with its pri-mary aims of training and communicating, Torrance Council will conduct a series of workshops during the month of November, states Mrs. James Orr, president.

Mrs. James Orr, president.
An auditors workshop will be conducted by Mrs. Paul Crossman, council auditor, at her home, 2143 Middlebrook Rd., on Nov. 13, from 10 am, until noon. A parent education workshop will be held at Anza School on Nov. 13 from 9:30 a.m. to 11:30 a.m. and will be conducted by Mrs. Donald Woodis.

Six PTA Councils (Cen-

Donald Woodis.
Six PTA Councils (Centinela, El Segundo, Lennox, Lawndale, Inglewood, and Torrance) will combine to conduct a special education workshop at Hyman Hall, Hawthorne High School, on Nov. 15 at 9:30 a.m.

DISTRICT

Thirty-Third District will hold its second Legislation Workshop of the current ser-ies on Nov. 14 at 9:45 a.m. at Compton High School, 417 W. Alondra Blvd.

Edison PTA association meeting will be held Wednesday, Nov. 13, at 7:30 p.m. in the school cafetorium. Following the business meeting, Mr. Herman Boodman, 7th grade teacher will present a grade teacher will present a group of North High students, group of North High students, who will do gymnastics. Refreshments will be served by the third grade mothers. The next meeting will be Dec. 11, at that time the Christmas program will

VICTOR

Victor Elementary School PTA will hold its annual fall PTA will hold its annual fall carnival Saturday Nov. 16 from 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. Theme of the carnival is based on an international flavor. Costumes of foreign countries will be featured, according to Victor PTA president, Harry Harwitz.

Carnival chairman Mrs Robert Newcomber, Mrs. Wil-

Carnival chairman Mrs Robert Newcomber, Mrs. William Coombs, and Mr. Chris Eliopulos promise prizes, games, and food for all ages. Activities will be located both inside classrooms and outside on the grounds adjoining cafetorium. An international bakery will be featured. Tickets are now on sale at

Tickets are now on sale at Victor School, 4820 Spencer, and also may be obtained at the carnival. Further information may be obtained by calling Mr. Horwitz.

Anne Poxon to

Be Presented

Miss Anne Louise Poxon, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leo John Poxon, 5375 W. Rolling Ridge Rd., Rolling Hills, will be one of the 38 young daugh-ters of representative fami-lies of Southern California to lies of Southern California to bow before His Eminence James Francis Cardinal Mc-Intyre on March 30, 1964. The seventh annual Presen-tation Ball, sponsored by the Social Service auxiliary of Los Angeles will be held in the International Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel on Easter Monday.

USO HONOR . . . Penny Jean Costa of Torrance was awarded the "USO Doll of the Month" at the September dance held at the San Pedro YMCA. Presentation of the doll award was made by Guy Hatfield, hillbilly monologist, who was guest star for the company. USO HONOR ning's entertainment.

EVELYN CARR

Music and safety will be featured by the Evelyn Carr PTA when the association meets on Nov. 26 at 7:30 p.m. in the Carr cafetorium, according to Mrs. Stanley

Jackson, president.

Musical selections will be provided by the El Camino Singers. Members of the Tor-Singers. Members of the Torrance Fire Department will present a safety demonstration to carry out the program theme "Protecting Our Youth." Refreshments will be served following the meeting. All parents in the Carr attendance area are invited to attend.

Sisterhood Style Show On Tuesday

Tempie Beth Torah Sisterhood will present its annual fashion show, "Fashions for Youth" Tuesday, Nov. 12, at the Sportsman's Park, 9637
S. Western Ave., at 8 p.m.
Modeling will be Mmes.
Warner Harris, Morris Greenbaum, Norman Sorashevsky,
Bernard Cohen, Max Panswy,
Daniel Bernstein, Esmond

Daniel Bernstein, Esmond Kronick, Irving Kosky and Arnold Sherman. Mrs. Alfred Fink will serve

Among the many prizes to be awarded will be a weekend trip to the Riviera Hotel in Las Vegas with all expenses paid. The public and all Sis-terhood members are invited to attend

. Tickets may be secured by calling Mrs. Arthur Margolese or Mrs. William Horwitz.

Mrs. Martin Siegel, Sister-hood president, and Mrs. Paul Wachs, vice president, act as hostesses.

Knolls Club Celebrates

Mr. and Mrs. Charles Griebehow's golden wedding anniversary was celebrated by 75 members of the Knolls Travelers Club at its last meeting. The group also cele-brated the birthdays of five enjoyed along with a travelogue.

The committee is now working on plans for the club's first Christmas party to be held Sunday, Dec. 22, in the main recreation hall. This party is for members only. The club will sponsor a chartered bus trip to the Ice-canades in Long Reach on chartered bus trip to the Ice-capades in Long Beach on Sunday, Nov. 24. The Ladies' Thursday Club donated $34.50 to the club treasury, proceeds from their recent bake sale.

Attend Party

Mr. and Mrs. Robert Tolson were guests of Mr. and Mrs. Gerald Witt at the annual Halloween costume party at the Badminton Club in Man-hattan Beach last Saturday

Penny Costa Wins Title 'USO Doll'

Guy Hatfield, backwoods monologist and one of the original Hatfields of the fafamilies, was the guest star at the September special USO the September special USO dance held at the YMCA in San Pedro.

Almost 200 USO volunteers and their military guests from the harbor area enjoyed the droll, hillbilly humor of the guest star.

After entertaining the guests, Hatfield presented the third "USO Doll of the Month" award to Miss Penny Jean Costa of Torrance Jean Costa of Torrance.

Another highlight of the entainment, in addition to the dance music of San Pedro "Chaparels." was the square dancing called by the old-time West Coast favorite, Homer Garrett Garrett.

Many servicemen from all over the United States, who are stationed in the Harbor Area, looked forward to this "home-town type" square dance.

TO SAY FAREWELL... Mrs. Frieda Shafer, worthy matron, and Estill Clere, worthy patron, and their 1963 officers will be in the spotlight on Thursday evening, Nov. 21 when the Torrance Chapter, Eastern Star, holds its annual "Farewell Night" at the Torrance Masonic Temple. New Eastern Star officers will be installed in ceremonies on Staryday evening, Nov. 23, at the Temple. Saturday evening, Nov. 23, at the Temple

PTA

HALLDALE

Halldale Ave. PTA will observe Father's Night at the association meeting Tuesday, Nov. 12, at 7:30 p.m. in the school auditorium. Mrs. Helen Nelson, California Con-sumer Counsel, will be the guest speaker. Mrs. Nelson is the officially designated spokesman for the state's 1734 million consu-mers. Her position—only one of its kind in the nation was established four years ago by the California Legis-lature acting at the request of Gov. Edmund G. Brown. Mrs. Nelson has the job of advising the Governor on matters affecting the interests of the people as consumers and recommending legislation to the Governor and the Legislature on consumer matters. She is also a member of the Consumer Advisory Council created last year at the direction of President John F. Kennedy She will be F. Kennedy. She will be speaking to the Halldale PTA on "Is There A Fraud in Your Future?" Mrs. A m a n d a Wilhelm, principal, and the faculty will join with the executive board members in serving refreshments following the meeting.

223RD STREET

At a recent meeting of the At a recent meeting of the 223rd Street PTA executive board Mrs. Thomas E. Mil-lard, president, asked Mrs. William Libbrecht to be in william Libbrecht to be in charge of the board holiday luncheon. Santa Claus will arrive Dec. 9 at noon to make his first jolly appearance.

Mrs. Mike Kawamoto is making arrangements for a Christmas surprise for every child at the school, while Mrs. Gary Ferguson is making arrangements for a Christ-mas movie as a Christmas present from the PTA.

A committee was appointed to study revisions in the by-laws. Mrs Willard Hober, parlimentarian, will head the committee, with Mmes, Thomas Millard, John Bankard, Donald Lizotte, Ed Formanek assisting. Mrs. Mike Kawamoto reported on the success of the recent Halloween festival. Mrs. Edgar Formanek, United Way chairman, reported on the drive.

THE TORRANCE HERALD 15T IN ADVERTISING
IN CIRCULATION
IN EDITORIAL

Chi Omega Alums Meet

South Bay Chi Omega Alumnae Assn. held its monthly meeting at the home of Mrs. Arthur Montgomery Mrs. Robert Moore was co-hostess.

Mrs. Moore in giving a Panhellenic report stated that Miss Karen Frash and Miss Vicki Slagg, both of Palos Verdes, have pledged Chi Omega, Miss Frash pledged Omega, Miss Frash piedged the Gamma Beta chapter at UCLA and Miss Slaggs pledged Iota Delta Chapter, San Jose.

The group voted to con-tinue its philanthropic pro-jects, proceeds from which go to the Garden Valley School for mentally retarded child-

After the business meeting, Mrs. Alan Stephenson gave a talk and demonstration on Bonsai.

November meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Lutz in Hollywood Riviera. Any Alumnae in this area interested in attending may call Mrs. Lutz or Mrs. Phillip Barretta of San Pedro.

Shower for Job's Queen

Miss Midge David, honored queen of Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, Torrance, was com-plimented at a surprise "hope chest" shower given Monday evening by Miss Robin DuBe, senior princess.

senior princess.

The party was held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William McDade, 911 Felbar.

The honoree was brought to the McDade home by Mrs. Mildred David to attend a line officers meeting which Mildred David to attend a line officers meeting which turned out to be a surprise party for her.

Approximatey 40 Job's Daughters and Council members attended the affair.

After the opening of the gifts, cake and punch were served.

PHONE FA 8-3567

Open House At St. James School Today

In conjunction with Educa-tion Week, St. James School, Redondo, and St. James School Annex, Torrance, will hold open house today from 1:30 until 4:30 p.m.

Both schools are staffed by the Sisters of St. Joseph of Carondolet, along with quali-fied lay teachers under the supervision of Sister Mar-cella. The. St. James School comprises 11 classrooms through eighth grades, and St James Annex has 10 class

James Annex has 10 class-rooms with grade one through five. Combined enrollment is 1,005 students.

Along with the academic requirements of each grade level, students are urged to participate in the varied ac-tivities, and programs in protivities and programs in pro-gress. Among these are Boy Scouts, Girl Scouts, Brownies, Junior Cadettes, Junior Catholic Daughters, Athletics Children's Choir, School Band and Altar Boys.

Assisting Mrs. John Pasic, president of the Women's Council, with the school activities are Mmes. Charles Fischer, and William Taylor, John McKinsley, Clarence, Hauber McKinsley, Clarence Hauber, confraternity; James Corco-ran, safety; Edward Delaney, Donald Mulgaard, home and school. Area directors are Mmes. Ted Kerwin, north side; Genevieve Dimond, South Redondo: Jerome Mulcahy, West Park; Louis Brad-vica, Southwood; and Vernon St. Clair, central.

Vacation Trip

Mr. and Mrs. William N. Roberts, 21206 S. Vermont, have returned from a three weeks vacation trip. The cou ple visited friends in Colorado and drove on to Fort Smith, Ark., where they were guests of Mrs. Roberts' moth-er and other relatives.

Dinner Party

Mr. and Mrs. Russell Pax-ton were in Los Angeles last Tuesday evening where they had dinner with old friends, Mrs. Florence Adams and her daughter, Mrs. Opal Hicks of Seattle, Wash. The Paxtons and their hostesses are all former Loveland, Colo., resi-

From Connecticut

Capt. and Mrs. Earl E. Maxfield arrived by jet Monday afternoon from their home in Old Baybrook, Conn., for a several weeks visit here with Mrs. Maxfield's sister and husband, Mr, and Mrs. J. E. Dillon, 22304 Charlotte Dr. This is the first time the sisters have seen each other in six years.

CDA Bazaar For Missions Set Tuesday

Court S. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, World Mission Circle, is sponsoring a bazaar Tuesday, Nov. 12, at the home of the circle chairmen, Misses Kathryn and Felice Shaughnessy, 1404 Cota, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

Many handmade gift articles, baby clothing and other items will be offered.
Coffee and doughnuts will be served.

Monies derived from the event will go toward need-ed materials for the many missions to which the group sends regular pack-ages of clothing and medical bandages.

The public is invited.

Circle Plans Yule Party

Leah Circle of the First Methodist Church was enter-tained last Tuesday by Mmes. Miles Booth at her home,

A dessert was served, followed by a business meeting conducted by Mrs. Russell Paxton, chairman. Plans were made for the annual Christman Plans was to be held Dec 10. mas party to be held Dec. 10 at the home of Mrs. Raymond Hollins. This will be a mond Hollins. This will be a potluck and gift exchange.

Mrs. Arthur Nagel, wife of the pastor, was a guest at the meeting. A new member present was Mrs. Ethel Jennings.

Members present were Mmes. Jess Greenwood, Jim Parell im Delan Hazel

Buffalo, Jim Dolan, Hazel Ward, Viola Shaw, Blanche Riggio, Raymond Hollins, An-nette Bleich and Sara Hogue.

Guilds Will Hear Speaker

St. Lawrence Martyr Guilds will meet Nov. 14 at 8 p.m. in the school hall to hear Rev. John Houle, S.J., whose topic will be "Looking Over the Red Dragon's Shoulder." Rev. Houle, a native of Glendale, was imprisoned in Communist China for four years. He will also show a film strip "Heart of a Priest," a dramatic account of his first Mass in prison.

All women of the parish and their friends are invited to hear the lecture.

At Dinner Dance

Fleet Reserve Assn. of Southern California branch rence Welk at the Palladium in Hollywood on Oct. 26. Local members attending were Mmes, Tava Miekley, Harry Setzer, Ellen Warner, Catherine Loro, Foxie Finch; and Messrs. and Mmes. Victor Oliveras and Ivan E. Newberry.

But why look back? Right now, it's far more importa for you to think how you may look 10 years from now...and to consider what you can do about it.

Many women (and men, toot), concerned with this same problem, have found that Zeigler is their most effective facial care. They've seen how it goes to work on the fine lines and fine wrinkles...on skin texture... on tightening the skin. How it helps build their best ible complexion. They've seen visible improv in facial contours...a more youthful facial app

Don't wait. Find out about Zeigler Facial Care for yourself. Call today for complete details and free b

Call 320-2631. Or write

Torrance

1624 Gramercy Torrance