PRESIDENT Roger Duitsman cited statements of Dr. Leo F. Cain, president of the proposed college, as outlining the gen-eral boundary as Jefferson Boulevard and Slauson Avenue on the north, Harbor Freeway on the east, and the Pacific Ocean on the south and west. He said the Fox Hills site was on land that could be "ideally adapted for the new South Bay State College."

He said the Fox Hills site was on land that could be "ideally adapted for the new South Bay State College." Duitsman challenged the Tor-rance claim for the college site, saying it already is the site of El Camino Junior College, and "also is in close proximity to Long Beach State College where its residents could much more easily attend than could the thousands of students in the Slauson-Harbor Freeway area should be college be lo caed south of Inglewood."
