

Director Manu Happy With Chapel Audience

By BETTY SCHROEDER
Most gratifying to Gladys Manu of Wilmington, director of the current production at Chapel Theatre, "The Devil's Advocate" by Dore Schary from a novel by Morris L. West, is the fact that the cast and crew are playing to capacity audiences each night.

quality of one Giacomo Nerone who is a candidate for sainthood. Through smoothly developed flash-backs, the deeds and life of Nerone are disclosed revealing also the lives of those close to him.

Shire of Torrance as Paolo; Dennis Morgan of Inglewood as Il Lupo; Rudi Medina of Redondo Beach as Father Anselmo; Connie Pollock of Hermosa Beach as Mrs. Martino and Walt Reese of Palos Verdes as the Cardinal.

the cleverly designed set by Steve Sands of Hermosa Beach who is resident producer of the theatre.

Manu and Rudi Medina who are stage managers, the props are handled by Phyllis Palmer, Jim and Marlene Sena, Carolyn Schroeder, and Diane Berrara. Since there are only two weekends left for the run of this production, it is suggested that reservations be made in advance, as there are several evenings sold out, by calling Box Office, FR 2-9636. Chapel Theatre is located at 4114 Pacific Coast Hwy., Torrance, on Smith Bros. Fish Shanty property. Admission is $1.50 Fridays and Sundays, $1.75 on Saturdays, with curtain time 8:30 p.m.

Approximately 100 Harbor College Students will attend the World Affairs Day at Pierce College Saturday. The featured speaker will be Dr. Wilfried Platzer, Austrian ambassador to the United States. The program will include discussions on the Common Market, NATO, and Berlin.

YOUR NEIGHBOR IS READING THE HERALD TOO!

ON STAGE... Tom Lowry as Meredith and Lyle Smith as Black are shown in action during recent performance of "The Devil's Advocate" at the Chapel Theatre in Welteria. The performances of the current drama will be continued for two more weekends.

By Mike Connolly

Dear Sir: Do you think Glenn Ford will ever say yes to Linda Christian? — Vi Parks, Little Rock, Ark.

Dear Vi: It depends on the question.

Dear Mike: What would I need to try to break into pictures? — Sandra McKenzie, Savannah, Ga.

Dear Sandra: Enough money to live for six months. Talent and beauty help too.

Dear Mike: For my money (and I had a small wager on it) the Oscar race was slightly haywire this year. Gregory Peck's win was a hollow pretense, besides being a shameless piece of flag-waving. The award for best actor belonged to Pete O'Toole—but it's Oscar's loss, not his!—Joan Lipert, New York, N.Y.

Dear Joan: Some of the actors voted for Peck because they honestly believed his to be the best performance tell me they don't know a better flag to wave.

Dear Kind Mr. Connolly: Please tell me ALL about the Gabors—Zsa Zsa, Eva, Magda, and Jolie. They fascinate me no end. Are they a close-knit family? — Charlene Merseth, Elyria, Ohio.

Dear Charlene: Yes, except when they become unraveled, and they unravel easily. Especially when outsiders make fun of them, although they knock each other unmercifully and practically hourly. More I cannot tell you.

Mr. Connolly: Now that Anne Bancroft has won the Oscar, your readers might like to know her real name. It's Annemarie Louise Italiano. It cost her parents $500 to send her to drama school. It sure paid off, didn't it? — Rocco Bernardi, El Monte, Calif.

Dear Rocco: You betcha. Also, as they say in Bella Roma, "Auguri, prego, bene grazie, buona fortuna!"

Dear Sir: I haven't seen much of Ann Blyth on TV or in movies recently. What does she do to keep busy? — Johnny Bohlin, Bayside, Va.

Dear Johnny: Has babies. Just had her fifth, and she and Dr. James McNulty won't celebrate their 10th anniversary until June.

I know Jack Benny isn't really 39. Just how old is he — also Bob Hope, Bing Crosby, Joan Crawford, Bette Davis, Mary Martin, Judy Garland, Tallulah Bankhead, Shirley Temple, Greta Garbo, Vivien Leigh, and Ginger Rogers? — Lynn Galantha, Bloomington, Ill.

Dear Lynn: Jack's 69, Bob's 60, Bing's 59, Joan's 55, Bette's 55, Mary's 50, Judy's 40, Tallulah's 60, Shirley's 35, Greta's 58, Vivien's 50, Ginger's 52 and none of them will thank me for telling you but our motto is Service with a Smile.

Dear Sir: Is Cass Daley still around? To me, she's funnier than Carol Burnett.—Ed Pehler, Wilmington, N.C.

Dear Ed: Yep, Cass and her husband, Frank Kinsella, live in North Hollywood. She's semi-retired.

Dear Mike: Does Bob Hope's family approve of his many travels — really? Now REAL-LY? — Lila L. Kahn, Narbeth, Pa.

Dear Lila: Yes, they're proud that he can bring so much entertainment to others, particularly to those in lonely outposts. Bob says that when the kids were young they didn't know what he did for a living. They thought he was a pilot with American Airlines.

Dear Mr. Connolly: I've read that TV's "Naked City" series is being cancelled. It's one of my favorite programs and that really makes me sad. What is Paul Burke going to be doing now? — Helen Gersham, Charlevoix, Mich.

Dear Helen: First thing he'll do, he says, is visit the home he bought in Palm Springs three years ago, before his "Naked City" hit, and hasn't seen since. Then he'll do a movie, "The Snow Leopard," in Europe, with Romy Schneider.
