Mormon Leaders Here To Attend Conference

Two prominent auxiliary leaders of the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormon), Salt Lake City, will attend quarterly conference of the Torrance Stake Saturday and Sunday in Torrance.

They are Edith Mary Price Backman, a member of the Relief Society general board, and Sybil W. Hansen, a member of the Primary Association general board.

General sessions of the conference will be conducted Sunday at 9:30 a.m. and 2 p.m. by Stake President Roland Earl Gagon, No. 4 Cerrito Pl., Rolling Hills Estates. Visitors are welcome to attend these meetings in the Stake Center.

Mrs. Backman has worked in most auxiliary organizations of the church. She has served in the South African Mission of the church and is active in civic and charity work.

Mrs. Hansen has served as an officer and teacher in the youth auxiliaries of the church. She has been active in local and state garden clubs and societies.

Special meetings for Relief Society and Primary leaders will be held Saturday.

Local Church Will Observe Mother's Day

Family week will be climaxed Sunday morning at Western Avenue Baptist Church with a special service observing Mother's Day.

A gift will be given to the youngest mother, oldest mother, mother of the youngest child, mother of the most children, and also the youngest grandmother.

A devotional booklet will be presented to the family with the most members present.

A special service of dedication of children and parents will be held. The Rev. Charles Hughes will conduct the Mother's Day sermon.

At the evening service at 7:30, the Rev. Hughes will continue his series of messages on the deliverance of Israel into the Promised Land, taken from the Book of Joshua. His message, "Crossing Rivers of Impossibility," will deal with its current application to Christian lives.

Young Men Enlist in Air Force

Master sergeant Duane K. Hetler, U.S. Air Force recruiting representative for the city of Torrance has announced that nine youths from this community became members of the U. S. Air Force recently.

The new airmen are: Bruce A. Lee, 19, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Lee who reside at 1015 W. 228th St.; Terrence E. Jerome, 17, son of Mrs. Lillian J. Jenno, 21905 Anza; and John Bautista, 19, son of Mrs. Jovie Torres, 22729 Nicolle.

Ronald L. Clawson, 19, son of Raymond Clawson, 2909 El Dorado St.; Stephen J. McGuire, 18, son of Mrs. Betty McGuire, 1811 Marinette; Thomas J. Tyler, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. George Tyler, 18903 Florwood; and Michael G. Miller, 18, son of Mrs. Margaret Miller, 5321 Reese Road.

Richard Schmidt, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Schmidt, 17116 Casimir Ave.; and Howard L. Oden, 18, son of Mr. and Mrs. Loren Oden, 2712 W. 175th St.

ENLISTMENT was accomplished at the newly located USAF Recruiting Office, 1616 Cabrillo Ave., FA 8-1404, stated Sgt. Hetler. Selection was based on a series of aptitude examinations given before enlistment. Each man was given the opportunity to specify desired field of training based on the results of the aptitude examinations.

Church Plans Bach Concert Vesper Series

A series of three vesper concerts, under the direction of Lyle Heck, will be presented at the Resurrection Lutheran Church, 330 Palos Verdes Blvd., Redondo Beach, May 19, June 16, and July 14, at 4 p.m.

Each concert will consist of compositions by J. S. Bach on death. Duets, arias, chorales and choruses from Cantatas 161, 158, 53, 125 and 106 will be included in the first performance presented by the church's Bach choir, Lyle Heck, bass baritone, Emily Steinke, soprano, and an instrumental ensemble.

Engaged, also, to appear in the concerts, are Olive Chorley, alto; Richard Robinson, tenor; Eleanor Maes, soprano; Don Ogren, bass; and Malcolm Hamilton, harpsichordist.

Realty Firm Plans Series Of Lectures

A series of four lectures on important phases of real estate is being planned by officers of Southwest Realty Co. It was announced here yesterday by Louis Peskin, spokesman for the firm.

Lectures will cover financing, investments, construction, and property management, Peskin said. The series, which will be open to the public without charge, is intended to provide homeowners and property owners with a broader understanding and appreciation of real estate subjects.

Persons interested in attending the free lecture course are being asked to drop a card to Southwest Realty Co., 10004 Hawthorne Blvd., Inglewood, and indicate the number planning to attend.

A date and place for the lectures will be determined soon Peskin said.
