

Enjoying His Second Childhood . . .

Dear Ann Landers: The widow who lives next door is a woman in her 40's. She is pleasant but we have never said anything more than "Good morning" or "Good evening" to one another.

Our dining room window faces her bedroom window. Whenever my husband sees her bedroom light go on he rushes into the dining room and starts to play solitaire. The woman never pulls her shades down She would have shades down. She would have to be blind not to see my husband facing her window, taking everything in. I have never said a word to him about this because I don't want to make an issue of it. He is 73, and definitely over the hill so far as romance is concerned. I hope I have made myself clear. Any suggestions would be apprecited.—OLD DUFFER'S WIFE

Dear Wife: Don't just sit there like a clam with a bro-ken hinge. Tell him you are wise and that you hope he is enjoying his second child-

Dear Ann Landers: I'm not dictating this letter to my secretary because she is out to lunch. But I'm so burned up I can't wait until she re-turns, so please excuse the mistakes:

mistakes.

I have telephoned my wife 11 times this morning at fifteen minute intervals. The line is still busy. This has happened to me before. Once I got so mad I sent her a telegram and told her to get off the telephone. On another occasion I asked the operator to cut in but she said her supervisor wouldn't let her cut in unless it was an emergency. I told her it WAS an emergency, that somebody was going to get shot. It didn't work.

Tell me, Ann Landers, how

Tell me, Ann Landers, how can a person gabble on about clothes, recipes, kids, gossip and other trivia hour after hour after hour? Don't their mouths get dry? Don't their arms get tired from holding the receiver?

Will you help me pressure the telephone company into an automatic shut-off after seven minutes? That's enough
