

'It Isn't the End Of the World . . .'

Dear Ann Landers: My problem may seem trivial to you but it is breaking my heart.

Ever since I can remember I have looked forward to the biggest social event of a teen-ager's life—the Junior-Senior Prom. I used to dream about what I would wear and how I would have my hair fixed. I even planned things to say, and how to say goodnight to my folks when we left the well, all my dreams are • Well, all my dreams are shattered because nobody has asked me to go. All my friends have been invited to go and I've been hoping that maybe a few of the boys who have been pleasant to me were just bashful, and holding off. But now I am sure I will not be asked at all.

0

Q

0

•

17

Will not be asked at all. How can I hold back the tears when I hear the girls discussing their gowns and all the last minute details? I hate for them to pity me but I am sure they are doing that right sure they are doing that right now. Please give me some help. I am-CRUSHED Dear Crushed: If you knew of the number of letters I have received similar to yours you wouldn't feel so "alone." And this is one of the sad things about proms or any special event where some peo-ple are bound to be left out. It DOES hurt. But it isn't the end of the world, Honey. You will sur-vive the blow and it will fade from meory. Life can be vive the blow and it will fade from memory. Life can be tough and disappointments and heartaches come to every-one sooner or later. Nobody escapes. So consider this dis-appointment as one of the trials that must be faced. And remember, it's not what hap-pens to us but how we take it that counts. .

Dear Ann Landers: It's ob-2 vious that you don't know anything about brewing tea-or the proper use of teabags. When a woman wrote and asked what to do with the sloppy-looking thing, you said a guest should not be faced with the problem—that the hostess should remove the tea bag in the kitchen. The idea of the tea bag is

The idea of the tea bag is so that each person can brew tea to his own taste. Some people like it weak, and oth-ers like it brisk. What sense is there in having a tea bag if it is going to be removed in the kitchen? It's a good thing you aren't the food edi-tor or you'd starve to death. —TEA LOVER Dear Lover: Many food edi-tors who are not starving to death wrote to tell me I was off base with my answer. Your letter, however, was the sweetest. Thank you. So, three lashes with a wet tea bag for (Continued on Page 10)

Graduate Is Honored At Open House

Mr. and Mrs, Delbert Thom-sen, 1447 El Prado, enter-tained at an open house, fol-lowing graduation ceremonies at Bishop Montgomery H ig h School, last Sunday afternoon honoring their daughter, Kathi.

GIRLS STATE DELEGATES . . . These juniors from four high schools in Torrance will attend the annual Girls State at UC, Davis Campus under the sponsorship of the Bert S. Crossland Unit 170, American Legion Auxiliary. They are from left, Colleen O'Hora, Bishop Montgomery; Rosemary Heath, South High; back row, Judy Wolford, North and Jane Allen, Torrance High. (Herald Photo)

Americanism-Its Duties and Privileges

Auxiliary Sponsors Four Students For Annual Girls State June 17-25

This year the Bert S. Cross- schools are Colleen O'Hora, land Unit 170, American Le-Bishop Montgomery; Jane four girls who will attend the 20th annual session of Cali-fornia Girls State to be held Allen, Torrance High; Rosemary Heath, South; and Judy Wolford, North. June 17-25 at the University of California Davis campus.

Over 500 junior girls from high schools over the state will attend the session. Girls'State is an educa-tional program of "youth in government" from which the entire community benefits, according to Mrs. Alma Smith, Girls State chairman of the local auxiliary. It is an

Smith, Giris State charman of the local auxiliary. It is an outstanding Americanism pro-gram and as such has been presented a Freedom Foundation Award. Candidates, limited to one candidates, initide to one junior girl from each high school, are selected by the faculty of the school. Selec-tion is based upon outstand-ing qualities of leadership, scholarship, character, co-operativeness and physical fitness fitness.

cross Ave. Rosemary's major field of interest is speech and home ecenomics. She is vice president of the Athena Girls chosen to attend Girls State from the Torrance high

Celebrates 95th Birthday

Service Club, secretary of National Forensic League, front page editor of Sword

front page editor of Sword and Shield, is a member of California Scholarship Feder-ation, Civil Defense program and Junior Class committee. Judy Wolford, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. D. Wolford, was president of the Junior class at North High during the first semester. She is a candidate for Student Body president, past secretary of the Latin and Forensic clubs. Her major interests are lege major will be business administration. Rosemary Heath of South High is the daughter of the Edward Heaths, 2409 Fair-In the Girls State program, the students learn city and state government through ac-tual participation in setting up mythical cities, counties, state. Stress is placed on the privileges, duties and respon-sibilities of American citizen-ship.

Alternate delegates are Kathleen Scott, Bishop Mont-gomery: Phyllis Tatum, Tor-rance High; Joyce Weekly, North; and Jo Anne Barkus, South South.

TORRANCE HERALD

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

FASHION DELIGHT . . . Admiring Travilla gown to be modeled at the fashion show highlighting Mount Sinai Hospital's seventh annual donor luncheon Wednesday, June 12 in the International Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel are from left, Mmes. Sidney Carter, past president of the Mildred Strauss Child Care Center, and Irvin Schwartz, Brush photo) (Brush photo)

At Beverly Hilton June 12

Mrs. Regina Cunningham Fashion Luncheon For Feted on 75th Birthday Mrs. Regina Cunningham, 825 Sartori Ave., was honored Catholic Daughters, World Mount Sinai Hospital Mission Group, and the Tor-

"Fashion Flight Unlimited" is the title of the haute couture fashion show which will highlight Mount Sinai Hospital's seventh annual donor luncheon on Wednesday, June 12. in the International Ballroom of the Beverly Hilton Hotel. The show is being produced for the fourth consec-

Commentator will be Donna Lucas, retail coordinator for

of the hospital's supporting groups are expected to attend the affair. Funds raised will help support the free and part-pay patient care program provided the community by Cedars of Lebanon-Mount Sinai Hospitals.

nese imports, emphasizes the international look, and fea-tures ultra-chic gowns for daytime and evening, modeled by Hollywood's most beautiful mannequins. The European

Leathermans Mark 50th

Shower Fetes Miss Day, Bride-elect

Miss Suzanne Day, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Luther Day, 1622 Beech Ave., who will be married to Jack Taylor on June 29, was complimented at a miscellaneous shower on Sunday afternoon given by Mrs. Jack Ricci and daughter, Sharon, at their Beech Ave-nue home. nue home.

An effective pink and white color theme was used by the hostesses. A pink umbrella over a floral arrangement formed the table centerpiece. The colors were also used in the tea sandwiches and salad which were served with salad which were served which coffee. Bringing gifts for the June bride-elect were Mmes. Earl Green, Richard Ruffell, Jack Taylor, Don Mitchell, Earl Hammack, Don Dunkleburg-er; Gilbert Derouin, Dorothy Util sed Luther Day.

er, Glibert Derouin, Dorothy Hill, and Luther Day. Also, Misses Kasey Cross-man, Lindy Roettger, Carol Cromer, Kathy Sweeney and Susan Hammack.

Woman's Club Will Install Wednesday

Installation of officers will highlight the final meeting of the year of the Torrance Woman's Club to be held Wednesday, June 5. at the clubhouse, Mrs. A. F. R. Ewalt nast president R. Ewalt, past president, will conduct the installation. A business meeting will follow a catered luncheon.

League Auxiliary To Meet Monday

The Torrance American Little League Women's Aux-iliary will meet Monday eve-ning, June 3, at 8 p.m. at the Calle Mayor school auditor-Calle Mayor school auditor-ium. Mrs. Ray Gros, presi-dent, will conduct the meet-ing. A social hour with games, door prizes and re-freshments will follow. All mothers of American Little League members are asked to attend.

Approximately 100 friends and relatives were on hand to offer congratulations. A special guest was the Rev. Joseph Cremins, pastor at Nativity. The honoree also received many birthday cards from friends unable to attend the

at a surprise reception last Sunday afternoon at the Na-tivity parish hall in celebra-tion of her 75th birthday. The rance American Legion Auxiliary. For Sunday's party, a three-tiered birthday cake deco-rated with pink roses and sil-ver leaves held a small book on which was inscribed "Bless You on Your Birthday." Atop the cake was a guittering party was given by Mrs. Cun-ningham's daughter and hus-band, Mr. and Mrs. Don Milligan of Bellflower, her sons and their wives, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Cunningham of Tor-rance; Mr. and Mrs. James Cunningham of Phoenix, Ariz; and Mr, and Mrs. Pat-rick Cunningham of Fallon the cake was a glittering "75" Mrs. Cunningham was pre-sented a corsage of pink roses and gladioli, a gift from her grandchildren and greatrick Cunningham of Fallon, grandchildren.

Mrs. Cunningham and her Mrs. Cunningham and her late husband, Michael, came to Torrance from Duluth, Minn., in 1943. He was em-ployed as an engineer boiler inspector at Johns Mansville Co. prior to his death in 1947. Besides her three sons and Besides her three sons and one daughter, Mrs. Cunning-ham has 14 grandchildren and ham has 14 grandchildren and e ig ht great-grandchildren. Her youngest son, Daniel, gave his life in the second World War. The birthday celebrant is a member of the Gold Star Mothers, Inc., Torrance chap-ter; Nativity Altar Society, party.

After the reception, family members gathered at the Cun-ningham home for dinner. At 7 p.m. Mrs. Cunningham re-ceived a telephone call from her son, Patrick and wife, of Fallon, Nev., who were unable to be here for the celebration.

Mrs. Phoeba Sykes, 1521 Cota Ave., who was 95 years young last Saturday, took a 300-mile car ride with her son, William Sykes, and her sister, Mrs. Ivy Haut, 1407 Amapola, to celebrate the day. The trio had lunch in Oxnard and a special birthday dinner at a restaurant in Mint Canyon. years later. Mrs. Sykes is a past Noble Grand of the Trio Rebekah Lodge and is now a member of the Torrance Re-bekah Lodge. When she was 90 years old, she joined the Messiah White Shrine. When the Torrance Post Office opened, Mrs. Sykes, in the main from rour automatice to Lor-mita. At her newsstand, she of-fered for sale the first edi-tions of the TORRANCE HERALD published Jan. 1, 1914. She is one of the HER-ALD's oldest suscribers.

Witnessed 1912 City Founding

Canyon. Mrs. Sykes has another sis-ter, Mrs. Ella Fitzgerald, in England and nieces and neph-ews in other parts of the world who correlated by world who sent their greet-ings on her 95th birthday.

Wolford, North. Collean is the daughter of Mr, and Mrs. Lyle O'Hora, 1615 Fern Ave. At Montgom-ery she is a past president of the Latin Club, is a member of the Athletic Assn., on the Dean's Honor Roll, is Junior Class scenetary: student body. Class secretary, student body secretary-elect, and is on the drill team. Her major interest is sports. Mr. and Mrs. A. E. Allen, Her major interests are speech and government.

304 Maple, are parents of the Torrance High representative. Jane is a member of the Cali-fornia Scholarship Federa-tion, Thespians, French Club, GAA, and Rally Club. Her col-lege major will be husiness utive year by fabric importer and designer Charles Volk. She Was Here When It All Began, the Celanese Corp. Irving Glasband, president of the Mount Sinai Council of Auxiliaries and Affiliates, an-nounced that 1500 members a model T Ford, transported the mail from Torrance to Lo-

The fashion show, the first West Coast showing of Celacollections of couture clothes were created by such top-ranking designers as Hubert de Givenchy, Jacques Heim, Jean Desses and Ricci of Paris, Simonetta-Fabiani of Nev.

Paris, Simonetta-Fabiani of Paris, Simonetta-Fabiani of Rome, and Rodriguez of Spain. American designed costumes will also be shown. In charge of various func-tions relating to the affair are Mmes. Al Mayers, Irvin Schwartz, Sol Spezman and John Globe. Committee mem-bers working with them in clude Mmes. Meyer Cohen, Arthur Cutler, Sam Dolberg, Albert Greenberg, Harry Kap-Ian, Charles Klein, Al Lustig, A. Lincoln Myers, Edward J. Notick and Norman Sanoff. Mrs. Leah Mornell, director of auxiliaries and affiliates at Mount Siani, is coordinating details.

Kathi.

An arrangement of orchids flanked by candles decorated the buffet table.

Guests were Rev. and Mrs. Gilbert Zimmerman, Messrs. and Mmes. O. A. Kresse, Wal-ter Clausing, Ralph Rugraff of Torrance; Herman Mitchell of Delling, Ullup, Burl Machene Rolling Hills; Paul Meacham, Hermosa. Also, Mmes, Paul Loranger and Willys Blount, Torrance; David Mitchell and Charles Eade, Lomita,

Others were Misses Alicia Loranger, Annabeth Blount, Margot Melville, Ginger Zim-merman and Gayle Hyde, Tor-rance; Nancy Maniewitz, Gar-dena; Luciann Esposito. Long Baach Beach.

Also, Jack Anderson, Tom Thomsen, Dan Zimmerman, Franklin Blount and Ted Meier, Torrance; Michael Conter and Peter Daniel, Los An-

The nonagenarian, who enhappier than when traveling, was born May 25, 1868, in Huddersfield, Yorkshire Eng-land. She came to California Oct. 17, 1911 and made her

Oct. 17, 1911 and made her home on Chestnut Street in Lomita, which is now 238th Street. In April 1918, she moved to 1521 Cota in Tor-rance where she is still resid-ing with her son, who was re-tired last year after 38 years with Columbia Steel. Mrs. Sykes had the Times and Examiner agency and deant Examiner agency and de-livered the first papers in Torrance. She had a tent store on the Vernon Tool Co. land in 1912, later moving into Five Points on Carson and then into the PE station where she commited the neuroted for operated the newsstand for many years. The long-time resident is a charter member of the Tor-rance Eastern Star and was Royal Matron of the Lomita Court, Order of Amaranth in 1946, at the age of 78. She was also a grand officer two

MRS. PHOEBE SYKES

14

Anniversary with Irip

To celebrate their Golden Wedding anniversary, Mr. and Mrs. C. O. Leatherman, and ans. C. O. Leatherman, 912 Cota, who have lived in Torrance since 1920, made a three weeks trip by train to Cape May, New Jersey, where they were guests of their son and wife, Mr. and Mrs. Wen-dell Leatherman and daugh-ter

Mr. and Mrs. Leatherman were married May 9, 1913, in Los Angeles. They moved to Torrance in 1920 when Mr. Leatherman accepted a job with the Pacific Electric Co.

ter

with the Pacific Electric Co, He retired nine years ago. Their son, Wendell Leath-erman, is chief gunner at the Coast Guard Receiving Cen-ter at Cape May. On their an-niversary date. May 9, the Wendell Leathermans enter-tained at a dinner party at a restaurant in Cape May in their honor. A highlight of their visit was an invitation.

from Secretary of the Treasury C. Douglas Dillon to attend ceremonies at which the Secretary awarded medals to three Coast Guardsmen for three Coast Guardsmen for outstanding services. The Leathermans have two other sons, Everett of Hunt-ington Beach; Kenneth of Gar-dena; and a daughter, Mrs. Dave Figueredo of Torrance. Mr. and Mrs. Leatherman are both members of the Beare both members of the Redondo Beach Senior Citizens Club. They received many cards and remembrances from local friends on their anniversary.

Weekend Trip

Joining the Northrop Rock and Gem Club for a weekend in the Cady Mountains, near Ludlow, Calif., were three local couples, Messrs, and Mmes, Erwin Moudy, Roy Apsey and Ronald Rudy,

MRS. REGINA CUNNINGHAM