

South High Sets Graduation Rite For 430 Tonight

South High School will offer diplomas to 430 seniors in ceremonies tonight on the campus mall, the largest class of the four city schools to be graduated in this evening's ceremonies.

Dr. John A. Lucas, principal of the Pacific Coast High school, will offer the class to William J. Hanson of the Board of Education and to Dr. Louis Kaplan and Dr. Albert Posner, assistant superintendents of the district, who will present diplomas.

Valedictorian George Groveman will speak along with Frederick Coulter and Richard Coulter. The Rev. David Beadles, pastor of the Walteria Methodist Church, will deliver the invocation and benediction. Seniors will attend Disneyland's grad party after the commencement.

HC Students To Graduate On June 20

Dr. Frederick P. Woellner, professor emeritus of UCLA, will be the featured speaker at Harbor College's graduation exercises June 20 at 6 p.m. A total of 122 students will receive diplomas in the Campus Quad.

The invocation will be delivered by the Rev. Bert W. Brugett, pastor of the First Christian Church of Wilmington.

Laurel B. Baker, chairman of the construction and art technology division, who is retiring, will confer the degrees on the students.

A reception will be held after graduation.
