

Campfire Girls Hold Progressive Dinner

Progressive dinner with an international flavor was given by the Okita Junior High Camp Fire Girls for their mothers and fathers recently. Fourteen girls and 21 parents enjoyed a delightful dinner which was prepared by the girls, working in groups under the direction of Mmes. B. Lassere, dinner chairman; J. A. Davis, group guardian, E. Hansen, J. Mayeda and E. Vaslett. Italian canapes and American fruit salad and hot rolls were served at the home of Christine Vaslett, 5760 W. Capeswood Dr., Palos Verdes; entree of chicken oriental with rice, accompanied by iced tea was in store for all at the home of Sally Lassere, 2410 W. 229th St.; and the dinner was concluded with Swedish apple cake and coffee at the home of Kristin Johnson, 2430 W. 239th St. DURING THE course of the evening, Mrs. Davis presented special honors to Karen Kern for five years of continuous membership in Camp Fire Girls and to Kathy Hansen, Sally Lassere and Linda Mayeda for three years membership. The other members of the group participating in the event were Kathy Badger, Pat Bethune, Cindy Braly, Nancy

Davis, Darlene Labbitt, Paula Miller, Karen Schemm and Paula Sweet. IN ADDITION to the members of the dinner committee, the following parents attended: Mr. and Mrs. J. Badger, J. E. Braly, D. Kern, R. Labbitt, Mmes. W. Bethune, K. Miller, E. Schemm, and Messrs. J. A. Davis, R. Sweet, and E. Vaslett. This month marks the fourth anniversary of the formation of the Okita group, which is sponsored by the Howard Wood PTA. For Classified Results PHONE FA 8-4000
