Benefits Childrens Hospital

Auxiliary's Thrift Shop Open All Summer

South Bay Auxiliary to Childrens Hospital has been highly praised for contributions throughout its many years of volunteer service. Leading in this field is the Thrift Shop, located at 810 Hermosa Ave., Redondo Beach, where the public may find anything from antiques to a fashionable wardrobe offered.

The Thrift Shop is entirely dependent upon contributions for its stock of merchandise. These donations come from members of the Auxiliary, their friends and an interested community of South Bayans. The shop is staffed by volunteer workers, headed by Mmes. Robert Harrell and Emmett L. King, who have held these chairmanships for two consecutive years. They are assisted by Mmes. Russell Tracy and J. C. Vandagrift. The shop is open five days a week the year round, Monday through Friday, from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m.

The public is always welcome to visit the Thrift Shop, either to "just browse," or avail themselves of the many bargains that can be found there. Every "lady in blue," the Auxiliary members have now donned attractive uniforms, has been trained in both efficiency and courtesy, since they are fully aware of their goal in helping the small patients at Childrens Hospital, and what this assistance means to that institution.

The last business meeting of the South Bay Auxiliary before the summer holidays arrive took place on June 4 at La Venta Inn. They will reconvene in October. The Thrift Shop, however, will remain open during the summer months.

Contributors, who wish any information, may call anyone of the many volunteer workers on duty at the Thrift Shop.

ALWAYS ON DUTY . . . Mrs. Robert Harrell and Mrs. Emmett L. King, chairman and co-chairman of the South Bay Auxiliary to the Childrens Hospital Thrift Shop, are now serving their second consecutive year. The shop at 810 Hermosa Ave., Hermosa Beach, will remain open all summer. (Don Brolin Photo)
