

YOUR PROBLEMS

by Ann Landers

'World Always Had Shameless Females'

Dear Ann Landers: I wish these girls would quit crying because they have figures like ironing boards. My problem is just the opposite and I would gladly change places with any one of them. It's easy to add to what you don't have, but nothing can be done when you have too much.

Ever since I was 12, I have been subjected to crude remarks because of generous over-endowment. All through school I've had a collection of private nicknames you would not believe. I tried walking hunched over, carrying my books in front. I wore loose blouses. Nothing helped.

You can't imagine what it's like for a young girl never to be able to wear a sweater or a strapless dress or a low-cut gown. And what a job finding a decent fit! I need a size 10 dress with a 14 top.

So please tell the Flat Fiosies to stop moaning. If they had to wear a double D cup they'd know what trouble is. —ALL ME

Dear You: An embarrassment of riches, you might call it. Here's your letter and let's hope it cheers up the Flat Fiosies — although they will probably find little comfort in knowing that someone else has too much of what they'd like more of.

Dear Ann Landers: I am the mother of four teenagers. These are perilous times for growing up, but I am not concerned even remotely about my daughters, Ann. It's the boys that worry me.

Tom is 16 and Jim is 18. They are obedient and respectful, excellent students, well-behaved and outstanding in athletics. So what is the problem? It's the way the girls run after them that worries me. How much temptation can a young fellow stand?

Now that school is out the phone rings night and day. Both boys have summer jobs, but when they come home at 5:30 there is a list of girls who have telephoned. Every night two or three girls drive up in their convertibles. Sunday a girl came over in her car. She was wearing a bikini.

I wouldn't think of allowing my daughters to be so shameless. What can a mother do? —ATLANTA, GA.

Dear Atlanta: The world has always had shameless females and I see no evidence that this sort of woman is disappearing.

Your work is done, Mother — or it isn't. If your boys were taught early to respect themselves and others you need not worry. If you failed (Continued on Page 10)

Hiebert-Mayer Nuptials Held at Temple Menorah

Temple Menorah in Redondo Beach was the setting for the marriage and reception of Miss Barbara Ann Hiebert of Torrance, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marvin D. Hiebert, and George Mayer, son of Mr. Stanley Mayer and the late Mrs. Mayer of Palos Verdes.

Four hundred guests attended the ceremony officiated by Rabbi Unger. Out-of-state wedding guests included friends and relatives from Israel, New York and Georgia.

The bride wore a full length, white, silk organza dress and train, adorned with appliqued flowers. The maid of honor, Miss Madlyn Hensley of Torrance and bridesmaids, Mrs. Pay Leng Lim and Misses Kathleen Taylor, Karen Janzen, Sally Mason of Torrance, and Marleen Mayer, sister of the groom, wore lavender silk organza over lavender satin. Bouquets were blue chrysanthemums. Miss Janice Schwartz was flower girl.

Gary Burgner attended Mr. Mayer as best man. Ushers were Messrs. Steven Labows, Gerald Sherburn, Mitz Hamanaka, Victor Maseki, and Richmond Hiebert, brother of the bride. Peter Janzen was ring bearer.

Miss Hiebert was graduated from Torrance High School in 1959 and will receive her BA degree in elementary education from San Fernando Valley State College in February, 1964.

Mr. Mayer was graduated from Torrance High School in 1958 and will graduate from the school of pharmacy at USC in June, 1964.

The newlyweds left by air June 17 for a two-week Honolulu wedding trip.

Bowlds-Martois Marriage Read by the Rev. Rhoades

Miss Judith Lee Bowlds and John Sherman Martois were joined in marriage in a formal ceremony at the Calvary Presbyterian Church, Wilmington, June 15, with the Rev. Francis Rhoades officiating.

The bride's gown, which featured a chapel length, tiered train, was full-skirted and lace-appliqued with auroa borealis sequins. Her fingertip, illusion veil was secured with a tiara of pearls and auroa borealis. Six white orchids composed the bridal bouquet. She was given in marriage by her father, Mr. Jack Bowlds.

Blue taffeta sheaths with matching overskirts were worn by Mrs. William Colby, matron of honor, and Miss Lao Spall and Mrs. James Wright, bridesmaids. Bouquets were of baby, blue-tipped chrysanthemums, tied with blue ribbon.

Miss Claudia Hoskins, in blue taffeta dress and white basket bouquet of white roses, was flower girl.

Mr. Floyd Clark attended Mr. Martois as best man. Messrs. Jim Martois, brother of the groom, and William Mason were ushers. Gregory Clifford was ring bearer.

Mr. Douglass Scott sang "Love Never Fails," accompanied by Mrs. Kenneth Scott, organist.

Rivierans Set Dance And Dinner

"The Last Roundup" square dance and dinner party has been scheduled by the Riviera Little League Women's Auxiliary for 7:30 p.m. next Saturday at the Eagles Hall in Redondo Beach.

Mrs. R. A. Campbell, first vice president of the group, is in charge of the program. She will be assisted by Mrs. W. K. Waldeck and Mrs. E. D. Moreland. "Caller" for the square dances will be Ray Powell.

An "All-Star Revue" variety show will top entertainment for the evening. It will feature a cast of 30 league members directed by Mrs. W. K. Watson. Mike Roy will be master of ceremonies.

Others assisting with the program include Mmes. R. M. Freeman, president; Robert Sullivan, second vice president; Patrick Hynes, third vice president; R. W. Rector, secretary; D. N. Jarvis, treasurer; H. K. Hebson, editor; William Brown, telephone chairman; P. C. Chan, team pictures, and William Petersen, fireworks chairman.

Las Vecinas Reveals Scholarship Winners

Three South High School graduates have been given $250 scholarships by the Las Vecinas Woman's Club.

They are Richard Jurmain, son of Mrs. Arthur Jurmain of 24008 Janet Lane; Helen Marich, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Marich of 4718 Via Corona, and Beatrice Aldred, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Merlin C. Aldred of 5337 Linda Dr.

Mrs. Mel Heflinger, outgoing club president, presented the scholarships at a recent luncheon-installation meeting which was witnessed by 108 club members honoring the new slate of officers and welcoming 18 women into active membership.

In addition to the $250 scholarship grant, Richard was given a $450 microscope for use in his medical studies at UCLA this fall. The club gave him the microscope in appreciation for his high scholastic attainment and his dedication to a medical career. He has indicated his interest lies in the field of cardiology. Mrs. Joseph Jay, outgoing ways and means chairman said.

Richard first became a Las Vecinas scholarship student upon graduation in 1960 and further qualified for a continuing scholarship as a pre-medical student at UCLA where he completed his studies in a three year period with a 3.7 grade average.

The Elsie Beckman Memorial Nursing Scholarship went to Miss Marich who will attend Whittier College and plans a career in surgical nursing. The scholarship is given in memory of a Las Vecinas charter member and is awarded annually to a recipient who indicates an interest in nursing or allied profession.

Miss Aldred was selected to receive the other grant to further her studies at UCLA where her interests lie in science and medicine as she prepares for a career as a medical laboratory technician.

Final selections of the scholarship recipients were made by a committee headed by Mrs. John Walti, and assisted by Mrs. Lloyd Hennen and Mrs. Roy C. Hickman.

The organization presented its first scholarship in 1957 as part of the club philanthropic activities and have increased the number to three as more funds became available and the need for additional financial assistance to deserving graduates became apparent.

Celebrate Birthday

Among recent celebrants at Marineland Restaurant in Palos Verdes were Mr. and Mrs. Paul M. Clark of Rolling Hills, who entertained a table of friends to observe Mrs. Clark's birthday anniversary. Well-wishers were Messrs. and Mmes. James S. Payne of Torrance and the William G. Clarks of Hawthorne.

son who is strumming the guitar; Mrs. Patrick Hynes, second vice president; Mrs. James Hurst, soloist; and Mrs. Douglas Jarvis, treasurer, who is urging the cowgirls on to greater efforts.
