Children's Play Slated At El Camino

Tickets for the forthcoming production of the El Camino College production of "Wizard of Oz" go on sale today in the student store.

The children's play will be presented at 7:30 p.m., July 25-27, with additional performances at 10:30 a.m. and 2:30 p.m. on Saturday, July 27. General admission is 75 cents.

Sellout audiences have been characteristic of the children's theater at El Camino for the past four or five years.

HIGH SPY

Biologists have found a use of their own for Tiro, the weather-spotting satellite. It may be used to detect the formation of swarms of desert locusts.
