VALUABLE ENTRIES . . . Susan, 4, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Weaver of Lawndale, is surrounded by her obedience trained Borzoi Beau and Zella, who will be entered in the Southwest Obedience Club annual licensed trial July 20, from 6 p.m. to midnight at Rosecrans Playground. Borzoi, known in this country as Russian wolfhounds, were originally wolf hunting dogs in Russia, owned only by the aristocrats. Still valuable coursing hounds, they are also well-mannered house dogs and gentle with children.

Obedience Club Opens Annual Licensed Trials

Approximately 360 purebred dogs of all breeds will be in competition at the annual licensed trial, sponsored by the Southwest Obedience Club of Los Angeles, July 20, from 6 p.m. to midnight at the Rosecrans Playground, 149th and Vermont Ave., Gardena.

The show is open to the public without admission charge and a hot buffet dinner will be served at 5 p.m.

JUDGES FOR the show, which will offer 60 beautiful ring trophies plus 34 special award trophies to winners, include: Warren Stephens and Carl Spitz, novice class A; Dr. John L. Johnson, novice class B; Gerald F. Orth, graduate novice class; Mrs. Virginia M. Miller and George Miller, open class A; Herald Hylton and Nicholas Kay, open class B; and Howard Cross and Dr. Arthur E. Quirk, utility class.

Novice dogs, working for a degree of companion dog, must heel on and off the leash, stand for examination, sit, down, and recall to the handler. Open dogs, working for a degree of companion dog excellent, must do all exercises off leash, jump on command, and retrieve an object.

The most advanced dogs are trained for utility work, which leads to a degree of utility dog. They must be trained for scent discrimination, hand signal exercises, and directional jumping.

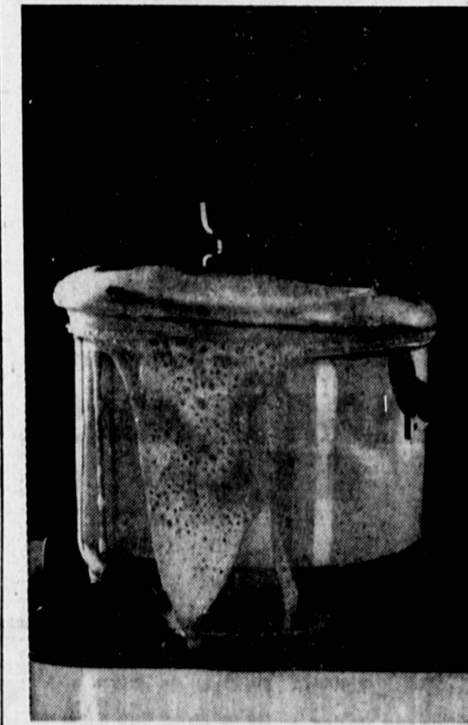

THE SOUTHWEST Obedience Club is a non-profit organization. The majority of the proceeds from this show will be donated to Guide Dogs for the Blind at San Rafael. Southwest has been contributing to Guide Dogs for the past 10 years, and during the past 13 months has donated $3,500 to this group which is equal to two man-dog units. The last man-dog unit donated by Southwest was presented to a Long Beach man on May 25, 1963 at San Rafael.

According to President Carl Curry, the goals of the club are to further obedience training and good sportsmanship, while at the same time making the dogs better members of the community in which they live. Curry also stated that while a dog may be man's best friend, an obedience trained dog is more likely to be your neighbor's best friend.

The training groups are held at Rosecrans Playground every Tuesday at 7:30 p.m. and every Saturday at 2 p.m. The public is invited to observe the training groups on either of these days. Club meetings are held at McMasters Park in Torrance on the third Thursday of every month at 8 p.m.
