AT SCHOOLS . . . Three Torrance men have been selected to attend technical training courses at specialist schools following their completion of basic training at Lackland Air Force Base. The men are Airman John W. McEwan, son of Mr. and Mrs. James W. McEwan of 19929 Ingrum Way; Airman Gary J. Parker, son of Mrs. Phyllis G. Hoy; and Airman Charles S. Shockey, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wilson K. Shockey of 5211 Halison. McEwan will attend a course for air policemen, while Parker will study personnel management. Shockey will attend a communications course.

Walnut Street Project Slated

Funds for the improvement of Walnut Street between the Torrance city line and 241st Street in Long Beach were approved this week by the Board of Supervisors.

Supervisor Burton W. Chace said the work will be done by the County Road Department. Improvements include widening of the street to join newly-installed curbs and gutters.

City Gets Money From ABC Board

More than $22,000 has been returned to the City of Torrance by the State Department of Alcoholic Beverage Control as the city's share of alcoholic beverage license fees for the first half of 1963.

The state returns 90 per cent of the money collected for the licenses. Torrance's actual share was $22,270.

New Book Details LA Progress

The ninth in a series of booklets on economic growth has been released by Crocker-Citizens National Bank, according to the bank's public relation department.

The new booklet, "Los Angeles Compared with the Nation," details the growth and progress of Los Angeles. Available records covering industrial, commercial, population, and economic growth have been compiled for the book.

Records from the United States Department of Commerce, the Census Bureau, and other recognized sources have been used with charts and graphs to portray the growth of Los Angeles and its marked development and progress over the last century.
