The Holiday season is a time to enjoy good cheer, good friends, and good food—but you can't enjoy any of these if you're tied to the kitchen all the time. To make your Holiday food preparation easy and enjoyable, and to spend more time with your guests, try putting your electrical appliances to work. After a heavy meal, light, refreshing and unusual deserts are in order. Using your electric blender, the following delightful gourmet dish may be prepared several hours in advance and be the star of the meal:

PEACH MELBA
1-10 oz. package frozen raspberries
1/4 cup brandy
1-10 oz. package frozen peaches
1 quart peach or vanilla ice cream

Thaw raspberries, blend in blender with brandy to make the sauce. Thaw frozen peaches. Pour raspberry sauce over peaches and refrigerate several hours. To serve: Remove the peaches to individual serving dishes. Place a scoop of ice cream in each dish and spoon raspberry sauce over the top. Serves 6.

Originality and a flair for dramatics always highlight a party. Use your electric skillet and bring this recipe to the table flaming.

CHERRY-BERRY JUBILEE
8 pkg. vanilla diced ice cream
3/4 cup currant jelly
2 pkg. frozen strawberries partially thawed
1 cup Bing cherries, drained
1 1/2 tablespoons cornstarch
8 sugar cubes
lemon extract

Melt currant jelly in electric skillet on low boil. Add strawberries and cherries and stir. Mix cornstarch with a little cherry juice to make a thin paste and add to the fruit mixture. Bring mixture to a boil and cook for 2 minutes until mixture is clear and thickened. In a small dish, pour lemon extract over sugar cubes until saturated. Place ice cream cubes into dishes, top with fruit and syrup, and place sugar cube on top. Light the sugar cube and serve aflame. Serves 8.

Buffets are one of the easiest ways of serving large crowds in limited areas. By the use of electric skillets, foods can be kept piping hot for several hours with no wear and tear on the hostess. A warm dessert to end a cold buffet adds a note of elegance and surprise to a party.

JAKARTA DELIGHT
6 bananas
1 cup orange juice
1 cup brown sugar
1/2 cup grated coconut
1/2 cup Graham cracker crumbs
1/4 teaspoon nutmeg
1/4 teaspoon cinnamon

Place split bananas in buttered electric skillet. Mix orange juice and sugar and pour over the bananas. Mix together crumbs, coconut and spices. Sprinkle over top, heat for 15 minutes at 225°. Serves 6.
