

'He Might Catch, Klop in Chops . .

Dear Ann Landers: Ellsworth and I have been married 18 years. Many of our friends have teen-age daughters with adorable little figures. When the girls come downstairs to wait for their dates Ellsworth's ever week. dates Ellsworth's eyes prac-tically fall out of his head. He always manages to get tically fall out of his head.

He always manages to get his hands on the girls and pat them in "a fatherly fashion." Last night one of the little girls was dressed up for a formal party. Her hair was piled high and she looked beautiful in her white tulle strapless gown. My husband pulled her close and panted. "Honey if I were 20 years younger I could really go for you."

The girl's father gave Ellsworth a blistering look and snapped, "Well you're not, Buddy, so forget it."

Everyone likes to have their children admired but I think my old goat goes beyond the bounds of good taste. I've told him so but he says I am jealous. May I hear from you?

—KANSAS CITY WIFE.

Dear Wife: Tell your husband that a teen-age girl considers a man her father's age a prehistoric fossil, Ellsworth had better keep his hands to himself or he might well catch a klop in the chops.

Dear Ann Landers: I am 16 Dear Ann Landers: I am 16 and going steady with a boy in my class. Stan and I are not planning on getting mar-ried next week, as most adults seem to think when they hear kids are going steady. We just happen to find the steady arrangement convenient

Just happen to find the steady arrangement convenient.

The trouble is my 12-year-old sister. I accidentally picked up the downstairs telephone yesterday and heard her talking to my boy friend. She was reading him a letter. She was reading him a letter which I had received that morning from a boy in Ashe-

Now I know how Stan gets Now I know how Stan gets all his "inside information." I have not said anything to anyone but I am very disappointed in my sister and shocked that Stan would stoop to tapping the little sneak. What is your advice?—CLARISSA -CLARISSA

Dear Clarissa: Let your sis-(Continued on Page 10)

CDA COURT'S OPEN SOCIAL . . . Members of Court Our Lady of Victory and their guests will see a color slide showing of "living madonnas" from the collection of Mrs. Mary Haberstroh, state vice regent, at their open social Wednesday evening at the Redondo Knights of Columbus Hall. The tableaux will be followed by a spring millinery show. Selecting hats for the parade are, from left, seated Mmes. Raymond Slick and Joseph Baune; standing, Mmes. Sam Estes, and Charles Fischer. (Herald Photo)

Madonna Tableaux, Spring Hats

'Halos and Hats' on CDA Lenten Program

Court Our Lay of Victory, Catholic Daughters, plans a unique esthetic and worldly open house social cleverly coordinating heavenly halos with earthly millinery, according to Mrs. Laura M. Duport, grand regent.

The evening party is scheduled for Wednesday, Feb.26, at 8 p.m. in the Knights of Columbus Hall, 214 Ave. I, Redondo Beach, under chair-manship of Mrs. Joseph Baune assisted by co-ways and means chairmen, Mmes. Stacy Rodman and Raymond

Heading the program will be a full color slide showing of "living madonnas" from the collection of Mrs. Paul Haberstroh of Montebello, California vice-state regent of the Catholic Daughters of America

America.
The "Living Madonna" tableaux was conceived nine years ago by Mrs. Haberstroh and has been presented annually in live production by members of Court Guardian Angel 1520 of Montebello. Authentic duplication of the originals, the "madonnas" number forty in all, including me of the world known (Continued on Page 10)

Americana Designer Collection

Hospitals, City of Hope and Jewish Family Service.

suits.

Trigere.

A FASHION HAPPENING is just what its name implies: a collection of exquisite American Designer clothes fashioned for any happening in the life of the contemporary woman. The show opened with a blaze of Lacquer colors—lacquer pink, green, orange, lilac, and yellow.

Off-setting the look of "Lacquer" was a group of noncha-lant neutrals, creme, bisque, beige, greige, and grey. A Grey mist wool flannel dress by Adele Simpson was topped with a brass buttoned natural linen blazer. The blazer her-aids the return of the square shoulder; square, but never-theless, soft in line. Another version of this classic jacket was seen in a bisque beige jacket costume by Hannah

Black and White flashed by in Dots and Dashes. The dash of many stripes—white on black and black on white. A black and white pinstriped suit with a dotted blouse and

Lacquer Colors, Dandy Look

Spark May Co.'s Spring Show

"A FASHION HAPPENING" took place at the Beverly Hilton Hotel when May Co.

Wilshire raised the curtain on their Spring. 1964 "Americana Designer Collection"

Wednesday. This annual showing is held in conjunction with the Helping Hand of Los Angeles Junior Auxiliary, Inc. for benefit of Cedars of Lebanon and Mount Sinai scarf by Geoffry Beene had the new Dandy Look which was evident in many of the

It would not be Americans

without RED, WHITE, AND without RED, WHITE, AND BLUE, However, May Co. presented a new version of Lacquered Red, White and Blue. This group had a military air. Brass buttoned and tailored . . as in a white linen jacket costume by Larry Aldrich. Navy and white stripe wool went nautical in a middy blouse with a con-

a middy blouse with a con-trasting skirt from Pauline

In sharp contrast to the military air the sportswear collection presented was re-laxed and feminine. Brilliant baby beach smocks worn with multi-striped pants from Ro-bert Sloan were shown. An Alice in Wonderland print of blues and greens was executed in bloomer bottom slacks

worn with a contrasting shifty

Couple Set April Date

rians for the forthcoming marriage are being announced by the future bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Steve A. Montez, 1627 W. 209th St. The bride-elect is a 1962 graduate of Torrance High School,

School,
Her fiance, son of Mr. and Mrs. Louis A. Funk of Lakewood, was graduated from Narbonne High School. He is employed by a drive-in restaurant chain.

GLORIA MONTEZ

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Flatt, enroute from Hawaii to Las Vegas and on to their home in Minneapolis, spent last weekend here as guests of Mr. and

Mrs. R. H. Froseth, 22316

top of vibrant chartreuse by Spring nights will be illumined with the luster of whites and lights, Pastel Porcelaines, bejeweled and be-spangled, in wool, silk, or linen will dominate the scene.

Paul Parnes goes romantic in a jeweled porcelaine blue slimline crepe. The import-ance of the princess line dress was noted in a white damask by Pauline Trigere.

by Pauline Trigere.

The masters of evening elegance went soft, softer, and longest in the most delicate of romantic fabrics and prints. Harvey Berin's sliver of navy crepe skirt was topped by a jeweled white overblouse. Gossamer chiffons with floating panels and matching stoles were in sharp contrast with elegantly cut cottons, both plain and printed. Millinery used in the show featured styles from Lily-Dache, Adolfo, Mr. John, Vincent Harnnik and Gari.

Vincent Harnnik and Gari.

Weekend Guests

Charlotte Dr

Rotary Anns
View Film
The regular March meeting of the Torrance Rotary Anns was held at the Tasman Sea restaurant at 7 p.m. on Thursday, Feb. 20, announced Mrs. W. E. Bowen, president.
Mrs. Don Hyde, program chairman, presented a short film of expectional interest to all.

TORRANCE HERALD

Social World

Edna Cloyd, Editor

FEBRUARY 23, 1964

FASHION AND ART . . . When Dianas and their guests gather for the annual fashion luncheon at the Golden Hull next Saturday, they will have the opportunity of seeing a display of paintings by Anthony Arave, artist. Making selections to be exhibited are, from left, Mmes Eric Lindgren and Arthur Builta. Proceeds go to the South Bay AFS chapter and the North Redondo Toy Loan and Health Center. (Herald Photo)

Exchange Students Guests

Diana Fashion Show Scheduled for Feb. 29

treasure chest of Fash-ion" will be unveiled when the Redondo Beach Dianas stage their annual fashion show and luncheon at the Golden Hull restaurant on Feb. 29.

Mmes. Eric Lindgren and Raymond Williams are co-chairmen of the event which will feature clothing from a local Fashion Center. Mrs. John Hansford, Diana president, announced that four exchange students from American Field Service will be guests of honor at the affair. These girls, who are residing with families in the Garden Club Entertained

Torrance Terrace Garden

Torrance Terrace Garden Club was entertained Wednesday by Mrs. Philip Lisman at her home in Wilmington.

The hostess served a luncheon, which was followed by a business meeting conducted by Mrs. Fred Sandstrom. Plans to attend the Orange Show in March were made.

The program for the aftermoon was a study of arrange-moon was a study of arrange-noon was a study of arrange-ments made from weeds. Each member had brought a display to the club meeting for suggestions and criticisms.

Attending with the hostess and president were Mmes.

A. C. Turner, Marie Shanahan, Minot Rugg, Ralph Crook, M. L. Hartley, Homer Davis and Mrs. C. Bruce of British Columbia, who is here visiting Mrs. Turner. visiting Mrs. Turner

Omicron Pis to Meet Wednesday

Omicron Pi sorority of Beta Sigma Phi will meet
Feb. 26 at 8 p.m. at the home of Mrs. Charles Lewin, 4603
Moresby Dr., Torrance.
Mrs. William Daniel will present the program, "Nature's Landscape" and "The Artist's Landscape."
Members will also work on

Members will also work on the scrapbook.

Oklahoma Guests

Mr. and Mrs. Walter Parkes of Torrance entertained with a dinner party at the Pen & Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach to celebrate the 27th wedding anniversary of their friends, Mr. and Mrs. Harold McCluett, who are visiting here from Norman, Britzmann from Chile, Ximena Alomia from Ecua-dor, Amanda Schocher of Austria, and Margarita Karay-annis from England.

annis from England.

The South Bay Chapter of American Field Service and North Redondo Toy Loan and Health Center will be recipients of a major portion of the proceeds from the fashion show. The remainder of the proceeds will be for other proceeds will be for other club philanthropies.

Another highlight of the show will be a display of paintings by artist Anthony Arave.

Further information may be obtained by calling Mrs. Eric Lindgren or Mrs. Ray-mond Williams.

The Dianas are affiliated with the California Federa-tion of Women's Clubs, Ma-rina District, Junior Member-

LYDIA BURKE

Lydia Burke Will Marry On March 7

Miss Lydia Burke will become the bride of Bob Darnell on March 7 at the Dominguez First Christian Church.

The announcement is made this morning by the future bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. James Burke, 1832 E. 214th

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Darnell of Muskogee, Okla., are par-ents of the bridegroom-to-be.

Miss Burke was graduated from Narbonne High School in January 1962.

Her fiance is a graduate of the Savannah, Mo., high school and is serving with the United States Air Force stationed at Vandenburg Air Force Base. He will be dis-charged after four years on

Fellowship Tea at YW Set Today

World Fellowship Commitworld Fellowship Commit-tee of the Torrance YWCA, Mrs. J. K. Burchfield, chair-man, will entertain at a tea this afternoon from 2 until 4 p.m. at the YWCA, 2320 Carson St., honoring foreign-born women and their fam-ilies.

Purpose of the tea is to ac-quaint the foreign born with the work and fellowship of YWCA.

There will be a program in which children, teenagers and adults will explain the various classes offered at the VWCA

To attend the tea, it is not necessary to be foreign-born.
The public is invited. There is no chanrge.

From Michigan

Mrs. Lelia Lewis of Flint, Mich., is expected to arrive this week for a visit with her sister-in-law, Mrs. Grover Whyte, 1620 Post Ave.

IT'S IMPORTANT . . . Nativity Mothers Club is spear-heading a campaign to have school children wear the Civil Defense I.D. tags or bracelets. Here two Nativity third graders Karen Day, 8, left, and Debra Graham. 8, accept the I.D. necklaces. The metal tag is inscribed with the child's name, next-of-kin, address, with an optional line for pitthday telephone blood type allersy etc. line for birthday, telephone, blood type, allergy, etc

(Herald Photo)

THAT DANDY LOOK . . . May Co's Americana collection for spring was dominated by the "Dandy Look" presented in this Larry Aldrich creation, a natural linen blazer worn over a mist of a grey flannel dress. Brass buttoned and tailored, the blazer heralds the return of the square shoulder line.

An April wedding at the Nativity Catholic Church is being planned by Miss Gloria Montez and Robert A. Funk. Plans for the forthcoming