... Ann Landers

These swings are symptoms of a sick personality. Don't take it personally. YOU don't have a problem, your friend does.

Dear Ann Landers: My sister started college last fall and everyone in the family looks forward to her letters. Yesterday she wrote about a mixed pajama party—for both boys and girls. Yes, they actually wear pajamas. Instead of chairs, mattresses are provided—in keeping with the theme. My sister did not attend such a party but her friend did.

The sororities sponsor these mixed pajama parties according to my sister. They are becoming very popular.

My folks are shocked, so was I. It seems to us that no respectable girl would attend such a party. Am I square and out of date at 23? I can scarcely believe it. Please tell us what you know about this. Can it be that things are moving THAT fast? We'd like to know.—CHICKIE

Dear Chick: Sorry, but I don't believe sororities sponsor mixed pajama parties.

If I am uninformed I'd like to know. May I hear from my college readers? How is it where YOU go to school?

URGENT!

Torrance Is At The Crossroads

The recent upheaval in our City Government will be repeated again and again if we do not make changes right at the top . . . on our CITY COUNCIL!

The Bickering and Erratic Actions Of The Council

Have set up the conditions which led to the recent investigations and shameful findings of the Attorney General.

It Will Happen Again If Torrance Voters Do Not Make Changes At The Top . . . Now!

April 14 will be a critical day in our city's history. With your vote, you can begin building a City Council which measures up to the needs of Torrance and its citizens.

Ask Yourself And Your Neighbors . . .

Does the present City Council have sufficient stature to guide Torrance, Los Angeles County's fourth largest city?

Does Torrance Have Chronic Problems Which The City Council Has Not Solved?

You might add — has not tried to solve because the divided Council is too busy bickering over minor differences.

Why Aren't Your Tax Dollars Buying More?

Compare this community's tax rate and tax income with other Southern California cities. Can't we have the parks, recreation, beautification the others have — without new taxes?

The City Of Torrance Is One Of Torrance's Biggest Business. It Spends Millions Every Year

The City Council controls the spending of your tax dollars. It amounts to millions of dollars. Executive ability is a must on the City Council to avoid wasteful spending and inefficiency.

Top Men Are Urgently Needed At The Top

There are some capable men on the Council now. But they can't act in your best interest without the urgently-needed support and votes of others of top executive ability and training.

Civic and Business Leaders* Have Studied The Issues and The Eighteen Council Candidates

They have joined in their recommendation of TED OLSON. There are 18 names on your City Council ballot. You are urged to read the entire list. Your thoughtful vote is urgently needed!

What Is Their Recommendation Based On?

Proven experience and administrative ability. TED OLSON is a member of the Torrance Planning Commission. He is Special Gifts Chairman of the YMCA Building Fund Drive. He is a leader of the Boy Scouts' South Bay District. He is an Industrial Relations executive with a major Torrance industrial firm, and he has six years of vital college training in business administration. Experience plus training.

Your Vote On Tuesday, April 14, Will Guide The Community's Course In The Future

Votes not only elect . . . they express the temper of the community. Politicians, even those who are not running, will study election returns as a measure of your like or dislike of their actions and policies. Tell them you want positive action now in Torrance. You can by being thoughtful and selective with your vote!
