ECC Coeds Win Grants For Study

Two El Camino College coeds will continue their academic work in 1964-65 on scholarships awarded by the Airborne Chapter of the National Secretaries Assn.

The winners are Miss Irene Pinkerton, 125 Via Pasqual, and Miss Patricia Sibeleski, 13821 Yukon Ave.

Each of the coeds will receive $50 for the current semester and will be eligible for $50 awards for two additional semesters if scholarship requirements are maintained.

The two girls will be honored by the National Secretaries Assn. at a dinner May 14.

North High Grads Wins Wilson Grant

William R. Lee, a 1958 graduate of North High School, is one of 505 California students who has received Woodrow Wilson Fellowships since that year, according to Miss Ruth Van Doren, information officer.

Lee attended the University of California and graduated in 1962. He is now doing graduate work.

California ranks second in the nation in the number of fellowships awarded to students. New York ranks first.
