Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

Go, go, go. Wonderful day when your sit-about turns scoot-about. But once your "fourwalker" starts creeping, there are pertinent things to do:

- Floors should be scanned for pins or any small objects baby might swallow. Iron and toaster cords or drooping plants should not be left a-dangle.
- Stairs should be sealed off with a folding gate . . . baby confined to an area within your eye's reach.
- Overalls are in order to protect tender knees; soft-soled shoes to guard tender toes. Both should have plenty of wiggle-room so torso 'n' toes can move freely.

Fruitful ideas for scooters, lap-sitters or runabouts. Gerber Strained and Junior Fruits are great favorites with all-age babies. And for good reason. They're flash-cooked in a matter of seconds to preserve the true-to-nature colors and orchard-good flavors that make them so appetizing. Flash-cooking also preserves the utmost in the precious vitamins so important to your baby.

Newest Gerber Fruit delectables: Applesauce with Pineapple . . . Apricots with Tapioca. Both are brimming with the kind of sun-kissed flavor small "fruit fanciers" favor. Strained or junior.

Overall coverage. Corduroy overalls make good creeper outfits because the fabric is so wearable and washable. Upkeep notes: (1) After washing, if you brush corduroy while it's still slightly damp, nap will re-fluff nicely. (2) If you buy overalls with patch pockets, you can use pockets as patches when knees wear through.

Cooky zoo, that's nutritious, too. Gerber Animal-Shaped Cookies for toddlers are fun to munch; fine for teaching animal names; have nutritional benefits, too. (They have twice as much protein as most other cookies, plus B-vitamins in the icing.) What's more, they're crunchy-hard for good biting exercise . . . delightfully flavored for happy eating.
