Catholic Daughters Aid St. Ann Home for Aged

Court St. Catherine 1378, Catholic Daughters of America, held its regular business meeting recently in the Nativity Parish Annex. Mrs. Harvey Lee, grand regent, presided.

Mrs. Louis Derouin and several members of the local court paid an annual Easter visit to St. Ann's Home for the Aged in Los Angeles taking with them canned hams and several large boxes of groceries.

Mrs. James Carlin was elected to fill the vacant office of monitor. Mrs. Carlin has been a member of the local court for several years and has served as sunshine and telephone chairman. She also is a past president of the Nativity Mothers Club.

Members welcomed Mrs. Elizabeth Cockran to the court upon the approval of her transfer from Court Loretta 287, New Brunswick,

New Jersey. Mrs. Cockran has been an active member of the Nativity Mothers Club and also a devoted member of the local Red Cross Blood Bank.

Elected to serve on the nominating committee were Mmes. Don Bryant, Lloyd Landerville, Richard Olson, Gordon Cady, and Robert Hammerle. They will present a slate of officers at the April meeting with elections to be held in May.

Rev. William O'Toole, Court Chaplain, spoke on the importance of doing local charity work and urged all members to take an active part in the functions of the court.

Mrs. Wesley Muzik, court district deputy, was a guest for the evening and spoke briefly to the court on the Catholic Daughters' many charities. Hostesses for the evening were Mmes. Andrew Rabel and James Neary.

Teachers Show to Aid Exchange Student Fund

The exchange student program between La Paz and Ensenada, Mexico, sister cities of Redondo Beach, will benefit from the dinner and fashion show to be staged by the Redondo Beach City Teachers Assn. on April 18 at the International Hotel.

Merchants from the Redondo area will furnish the fashions.

Among the teacher models will be Mmes. Gloria Morales, Marilyn Whitehead, Betty Turton and Louise Lightwine.

Proceeds from this evening of fashion and entertainment will go directly into the Exchange Student fund.

The public is invited to attend the gala affair. Mrs. Gloria Morales at South School in Redondo, may be called for reservations.

Sears Holds Graduation For Charm School Girls

No need to spend the days cramming for graduation from the Beverlee Kelley Charm School of Sears. After the ten week basic course, there is no doubt about the knowledge gained in understanding, friendship, personal appearance, hair loveliness, conversation, fashion modeling technique, weight control and intriguing wardrobe magic.

Each graduate receives a Gold Crown graduation pin when she is presented as "Miss Princess Charming." Parents and friends were invited to the graduation presentation held on March 18, at 7:30 p.m. in the Sears Torrance employee cafeteria.
