Pilot Club Will Hear AFS Pupil

Pilot Club of Torrance will hold its dinner meeting Thursday evening, April 23, at 7:30 p.m. at the Wayfarers restaurant, 2230 Pacific Coast Hwy.

The Education and International Relations committee will present the program under the chairmanship of Mrs. Mary Young. Anna Marie Horn, an exchange student from Norway, will be the guest speaker. She will also show slides of her homeland. This is also President's Night, when club members will honor their president, Mrs. W. E. Bowen.

District convention of the Pilot Club will be held in Sacramento April 24, 25 and 26. Attending from the local club will be Mmes. W. E. Bowen, Adele Burchfield, Mary Young, Joan Luup, and Leola Cork.

Members Initiated

Three new members were initiated at the April 7 meeting of the International Order of Job's Daughters, Bethel 50, Torrance. They were Phyllis Nation, Jackie Hizer and Jan Manchester.

Miss Janet Posner recited her proficiency test. A special guest was Miss Patti Fowler, past honored queen.

Miss Donna Hedrick, who now holds the office of guide, was elected Sweetheart of the Torrance Chapter of Demology. She was crowned and pinned by last year's sweetheart, Miss Linda Pollard, at the Demology installation.

After the meeting, refreshments were served. Miss Judy Osborn, junior princess, staged her traditional Junior Princess project, a breakfast on Sunday, April 12. Over 400 persons were served.

YMCA Topic At Meeting Of Sorority

Alpha Omega Chapter of Theta Chi Epsilon, national philanthropic sorority met Wednesday at the home of Mrs. Stanley Ton, chapter president.

Guest speaker was Handley Rogers who showed slides and discussed programs and activities of the Torrance YMCA. Mr. Handley is a member of the board of directors for the local Y.

This program was the first in a series of presentations to acquaint Alpha Omega members with possible philanthropies for the coming year. Each year a major philanthropy is selected to receive the profits from the chapters' annual sales of Christmas cards.

The Braille Institute was recipient of the 1963 profits which totaled $375. Additional projects raise funds for other smaller gifts such as aid for needy families and this year a nursery school for retarded pre-school children.

Betsy Ross Club

Torrance Betsy Ross club will meet April 21 at the Masonic Temple on Cabrillo Ave. at 10:30 a.m.

At the last meeting held on March 17, members worked on fancy work, aprons and other items for their bazaar to be held in October. Hostesses for this meeting were Mmes. Hazel Sanders and Alice Spehger.

LEON PERRY . . . In Auctioneer Role

Nativity Mothers Tea, Auction This Afternoon

Highlight of the Mother-Daughter tea to be given this afternoon by Nativity Mothers Club at the Nativity Annex will be a "surprise" auction of "second time around" items. Leon Perry will be the auctioneer. Hours for the event are from 2 until 4.

Mrs. Marve Erickson is chairman of the affair. She is being assisted by Mrs. Wayne Gifford and Mrs. Robert Lewellen, refreshments; Mrs. John Wilson, tickets; Mrs. Donald Bryant, decorations; and Mrs. Leon Perry, "second time around" items.

Y-Wives To Get Lesson In 'Aiki-Do'

Aiki-Do, a self-defense for women, will be demonstrated by a Lomita School of Aiki-Do, at the Tuesday morning meeting of the Torrance Y-Wives. An instructor and several women students will present the demonstration.

The program begins at 10:30 and follows an exercise session at 9:30 a.m. Interested women are always welcome to attend the Y-Wives meetings. Child care is provided.

Fete Guests

Mr. and Mrs. George R. Callahan of Hollywood Riviera were hosts at a seafood dinner in the Marineland Restaurant on the Palos Verdes peninsula, honoring Mr. and Mrs. Paul Snelling, who are visiting the south bay area from San Leandro.

Bowes Hosts

Mr. and Mrs. William J. Bowes of Torrance were hosts at a dinner party at the Pen & Quill hotel-restaurant in Manhattan Beach, honoring the William Cannells of Inglewood, Mrs. Stephen Bowes of Torrance and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Markoe of Westchester.

Present Violinist in Recital At Marymount April 24

Marymount College concert violinist Sandra Karol will present a program of Corelli, Beethoven and Brahms when she appears in her senior recital on Friday, April 24.

Accompanied at the piano by her brother, Dr. David Karol, she has scheduled Corelli's Sonata in D for Violin and Piano, Beethoven's Sonata No. 5, Opus 24 in F Major for Violin and Piano, and Brahms' Sonata No. 3 in D Minor for Violin and Piano. Dr. Karol, a member of the faculty at Los Angeles City College and Pierce Junior College, will play the Chopin Sonata in B Minor for Piano.

Miss Karol is an honor student at Marymount and has won two scholarships to the Music Academy of the West, in addition to a first prize award in the Willshire-Ebell competition.

This fall she will accompany the Roger Wagner Chorale on a concert tour of the United States, and next year will again be a member of the Chorale company on a European tour.

Her April 24 recital will begin at 8:15 p.m. in the Student-Faculty Center on the Palos Verdes Estates campus, and the public is cordially invited. There will be no admission charge.

COLUMBIA

The theme "Sharing the Bridge" was carried out by Columbia PTA at the March meeting. The Columbia students presented demonstrations of calisthenics and of training, leading toward sheltered workshop activities.

In conjunction with the health program, Frank Green presented the message, "Medico-Alert—How It Could Save Your Life."

An Honorary Life Membership was bestowed upon Mrs. Irene Marittimo, an attendant at the school, on behalf of her work in the community.

Officers elected for the 1964-65 term were: Mrs. Jack Spurlock, president; Mrs. Curtis Wood, first vice president; Mrs. Norman Appel, recording secretary; Mrs. Bertram Ancil, corresponding secretary; Mrs. Clois Jobe, treasurer; Mrs. Leonard Pulver, historian; and Everett Eaton, auditor.

LINCOLN

The Ways and Means Committee of the Lincoln Elementary PTA under the direction of Mrs. Earl Pitts met on Friday to discuss the forthcoming spaghetti dinner and bake sale to be held on April 24 in the school cafeteria. Assisting the executive board will be the local girl and boy scouts.

Included on the dinner menu will be spaghetti, salad, French bread, ice cream and coffee and milk. Assisting Mrs. Pitts on the committee were Mmes. Walt Lutjohann, Ray Van Dusen, Ralph Gring, Malcolm Rhodes and Andrew Foster.

TORRANCE

A Circus Theme, a magician, booths, food, gold fish, panda bears, throw the sponge at the principal, what more could you ask for in one day. Join the Torrance Elementary PTA April 25 from 11 a.m. till 4 p.m. at the school for a day to remember.

To be featured at the school will be balloon drops with free tickets in some balloons and Larry Nelson, the children's magician. Mr. Nelson will feature his bird and animal assistants.

Advance sale of tickets will be held at school during the lunch periods. Show time is 1:30 and 2:30 p.m.

MADISON

Madison School PTA will meet on Wednesday, April 29 at the school. Highlighting the program will be the cooking and serving of a spaghetti dinner from 6 to 7:30 p.m. by the Madison Dads.

After the dinner, a short business meeting will be held and upon its conclusion all are cordially invited to attend "Open House." Teachers and students will be on hand to exhibit classroom activities on a wide range of subjects.

Notices will be sent home with students suggesting a donation of one dollar for adults and fifty cents per child. Bring your friends along for the dinner and the interest of the "Open House."

Members of the elective board of Madison PTA are the following: Mmes. Henry Watkins, president; Pat Garofano, first vice president; Stanley Toloczko, second vice president; Don Ramsey, third vice president; Edward Hayduk, recording secretary; Vern Green, correspondence secretary; Glenn Marshall, treasurer; James Reynolds, auditor; Edward Reese, historian; and William Dickson, parliamentarian.

Perry Elementary School PTA held its monthly association meeting last Thursday in the school cafeteria.

Speaker for the evening was Mr. Hawkins from West High School who spoke on "High School Dropouts." His talk was of special interest to parents of children getting ready to enter high school. Following Mr. Hawkins' talk, there was a short buzz session on the Perry PTA and its many phases. Among the subjects discussed were the various duties of the committee chairmen, and the programs for the next year.

Hostesses for the evening were the 7th and 8th grade mothers. Refreshments followed the meeting.

ANZA Anza PTA had as a topic, "Magic of Democracy," last week at the April association meeting. The entire Student Council, consisting of twenty-six students took part in explaining the function of the Student Council, beginning with the constitution and going on from there, holding an actual typical meeting. This was of real interest to parents who want to observe democracy as practiced right in school by the Student Council.

The Pledge of Allegiance was given by Junior Girl Scout Troop 806; the Inspiration by Mrs. Marie Sinclair. Hostesses provided the refreshments.

CRENSHAW The April meeting of Crenshaw PTA was a change of pace with an afternoon program, "Spotlighting Family Fashions." Home-styled garments were shown with items made by the girls in the Home Economics class as the featured fashions.

It was announced at the April Board meeting that ten delegates will represent Crenshaw PTA at the Thirty-third District Spring Convention in Norwalk.

The purchase of a United States Flag for the cafeteria and award ribbons to be used in inter-class competitions was approved by the March general meeting, and these items are being purchased for future presentation by Crenshaw PTA to the school.

NORTH HIGH Final arrangements are being made by the executive board of North High PTA for the Freshmen Mothers' Tea, to be held in the school cafeteria, 3620 W. 182nd St., April 22 from 2:30 to 4 p.m.

This annual event will honor and orient mothers of eighth grade students from the eleven elementary schools that feed into North High School. Mrs. Perry Baker and her committee, Mmes. J. R. Allison, Gerald Cunerty, Robert Dean, William Cassida, J. W. Cleveland, J. K. Lemke, A. J. Stilwell, and Robert Thomas, are in charge of the event.

"All mothers of incoming freshmen students are urged to attend, to become better acquainted with our PTA, the North High School staff, and opportunities offered to your students by this fine high school," states Mrs. Cassida, PTA president.

RIVIERA At a recent meeting, Riviera PTA held its election of officers for 1964-65. They are: Mmes. Charles John, president; William Geisert, first vice president; William Watson, second vice president; Gerry Feinagel, third vice president; John McClure, fourth vice president; Ernest Jacobs, recording secretary; Gordon Campbell, corresponding secretary; Robert Harlin, financial secretary; Jack Entsminger, treasurer; Frank Bescohy, historian; and Mr. Lettunich, auditor.

Calle Mayor Off duty Torrance firemen will test Calle Mayor Elementary School children on their ability to handle bicycles safely on April 29 at 9:30 a.m. at the school.

The rodeo, a safety education program, will be staged as a cooperative venture of the Torrance Fire Dept., Torrance Traffic Safety Council, Torrance Unified School District, and the Torrance PTA Council.

Prior to the demonstration ride, a written test on bicycle safety will be given. A license will be issued to youngsters who pass both tests.

Parents are invited to observe their child in action.

BONITA At the April 7 meeting of the Bonita Street School PTA plans for open houses during Public School Week, April 20 to 24, were made.

Mrs. Roy Culpepper also announced a spaghetti dinner to be held April 22 at 5 p.m. in the school auditorium.

Refreshments were served by the fourth grade room mothers under the direction of Mrs. Vincent Davis, hospitality chairman.

Alpha Xi Delta Alums Elect Officer Panel

Election of officers for the coming year was the main project on the agenda for the March business meeting of the Palos Verdes-South Bay Alumnae Club of Alpha Xi Delta.

Named to office at the meeting held at the Torrance home of Mrs. John Hill, were Mmes. Harvey Jensen, Torrance, president; Reginald Martin, Rolling Hills, and James Stovall, Westchester, vice presidents; Russell Smith, San Pedro, recording secretary; Billy Blanchard, Torrance, corresponding secretary; Philip Sayre, Torrance, treasurer.

Others were Mmes. Louis Bradvica, San Pedro, magazine chairman; Walter Babchuck, Palos Verdes, journal correspondent; Kenneth Cunningham, Torrance, philanthropy; Gilbert Rea, Palos Verdes, Panhellenic representative, and John Hill, Torrance, alternate.

Mrs. Cunningham will handle the publicity and Mrs. Thomas Black is bridge chairman. Mrs. Gilbert Rea is local membership chairman, and Mrs. Luther Beard, Jr., Alliance representative.

Club Hostess

Mrs. W. L. Norman was hostess to her bridge club at her home 1109 Cranbrook last Monday afternoon.

Following a luncheon, the afternoon was spent playing bridge with Mrs. James Harmon holding the high score and Mrs. G. Wade Johnson, second.

Mrs. Norman's guests were Mmes. Don Wolf, A. S. Moore, D. J. Quinlivan, Donald LeGalley, Elizabeth Davies, James Harmon and G. Wade Johnson.

Attend Luncheon

Attending a luncheon in Pasadena on Wednesday were Mmes. W. C. Moyer, Adele Burchfield, Estelle McMullin and Flora Owens.
