Benefactors Sound Alarm

Who put out the fire?
Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Dawson, of 23305 S. Western Ave., were awakened at 5:15 a.m. Wednesday by two men bearing news their house was on fire.
The Dawson's and their two children Jerry, 3, and Larry, 5, ran outside to see smoke curling from under the roof and the two men attempting to extinguish the fire with garden hoses.

In the ensuing confusion of discovering the fire was in the garage, the interior of which was totally destroyed, Mr. and Mrs. Dawson did not have a chance to say thank you to their benefactors or learn their identity.

One thing was certain. They were good men with hoses. The fire was out by the time the fire department arrived.

Poll Shows Voters Are Undecided

If opinion polls ever mean anything, residents of Los Angeles County are largely undecided on a candidate for District Attorney.

A report from samplings made by students at Long Beach State, Pasadena City College, Loyola, and the University of California at Los Angeles show 70 per cent of the voters haven't made up their minds at this stage of the game.

Of those voters who did indicate a choice, chief deputy DA Manley J. Bowler lags slightly behind Superior Court Judge Evelle Younger.

Younger polled 13 per cent, while Bowler got 12 per cent of the vote.
