Bringing Up Baby.

HINTS COLLECTED BY MRS. DAN GERBER, MOTHER OF 5

This is Baby Week. What better time to remind ourselves that babies are the most important people and love is the most important gift we can give them? When you love your baby, you wrap him (or her) in a blanket of security that will warm him a whole life through.

Every week is Baby Week at your grocer's but this week he's making an extra-special effort to see to your baby's many needs. Every week is Baby Week at Gerber, too, where specialists devote all their efforts to babies... and babies only.

Feature attractions. Among the many Gerber products, you'll find Gerber Fruit Juices featured this week. There are 9 delicious varieties... all delicate in flavor... all equally rich in vitamin C. (That's the vitamin needed for sound gums and other body tissues.) For refreshment unlimited, Gerber offers Orange Juice, Apple Juice, Orange-Apple, Orange-Pineapple, Orange-Apricot, Apple-Cherry, Pineapple-Grapefruit, Prune-Orange and Mixed Fruit Juice.

Milk-a-date division. If you've been putting off baby's check-up visit to the doctor, Baby Week is a good time to set a date. A few tips for the trip:

- If you choose easy-off clothes it makes for simplified stripping... saves the doctor's time.
- A bottle for a wee one... a favorite toy for an older tot will help sweeten waiting time.
- An inoculation on the agenda? Baby will feel more secure if you hold him in your arms for the quick flick.

Dinner delights for starry-eyed sprites. Gerber Strained and Junior High Meat Dinners are just the thing to make a meal sing. Know why? Because they have 3 times as much savory meat as regular vegetable-meat combinations. Selected vegetables and subtle seasoning are added to make the flavor picture perfect. ... Ann Landers

(Continued From Page 25) pause? Thank you, in behalf of millions of suffering women who are also married to clods.—28 YEARS OF SERVICE

Dear 28: Hot flashes are indeed part of the menopause. An enlightened and sympathetic husband can do a great deal to help a woman over this difficult time of her life.

A visit with a doctor can also help. Today there is medicine available which can alleviate much of the old-fashioned discomfort. I hope you will look into it.

Dear Ann Landers: Am I a freak because I don't want a great big, flashy engagement ring? My mother says I ought to have my head examined. My older sister said if I don't get a diamond now I'll never get one so long as I live. Frankly, I'd much rather have some paid-for furniture than a $1,000 diamond ring.

I hope you will print my letter and say something in support of my ideas. Most of the people I have talked to look at me as if I have holes in my head when they ask to see my engagement ring and I tell them I don't want one. Thank you.—RINGLESS

Dear Ringless: Congratulations. In this day and age when so many young girls are hunting for husbands with a Gieger counter it's refreshing to hear from a girl who is not interested in blinding her friends with the Hope Diamond.

Stick to your guns, Buttercup, and don't feel that you have to make excuses. The only ring that really matters is the plain gold band.

Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers and Sex" ($2.95), is now available at your book store. Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
