Jaycees Plan Clinic for Seat Belts

Torrance Junior Chamber of Commerce members will install seat belts during a two-day clinic to be held Saturday and Sunday, May 16 and 17, according to president Jim Ackroyd.

In addition to the installation of seat belts, the Jaycees also will conduct a 10-point safety inspection of autos at no charge. Seat belts will be $5.95 each.

The clinic will be held in the parking lot of the Bank of America at Sepulveda Boulevard and Hawthorne Avenue. Licensed mechanics will be available at the same time to install smog devices.

Torrance High Class of 1956 Plans Reunion

Members of the Torrance High class of 1956 are being sought to make plans for the forthcoming 10-year reunion of the class, now scheduled for June, 1956.

Mrs. Jofran (Rubeo) Abramovic said several volunteers will be needed to make plans and locate members of the class. She said plans would be made early in order to insure a large turnout.

Persons interested in helping plan the reunion may call Mrs. Abramovic at FR 4-7526, or Mrs. Jill (Moore) Ritchie, 374-5583.

Stay with your boat. Most small craft will float when upset, the Red Cross says.

Area Students Named on HC Honor Roster

Three Torrance students were named on the Harbor College President's Honor List for scholastic achievement. Listed with 29 other full-time students were Lola Mayfield Figgins, Harry David Hill, and Kathleen Louise Hiller.

To be appointed to the list, a student must maintain a minimum grade point average of 3.5, or A minus, in work completed during the previous semester.

Other honor students were: Harbor City, Susan Arvola and Leonard Ross Sanders; and Lomita, Mary Lou Muller and Caroline Rachel Tomlinson.

Hampton to Premiere Yelton Play

The opening of Duke Yelton's new play, "Penance on a Sunday Morning," at Hampton Theater tomorrow evening will mark a "second" for Yelton and the theater.

The first work of the author to premiere at Hampton was "12th of Never" last season. It is scheduled for movie production under the title "Babylon by Candlelight."

Yelton's credit list includes three other plays which have been successfully received in the area: "Home Town Boy," which premiered at Metro Theater in Los Angeles; "Three Times Good-bye," produced at Pier Theater in Hermosa Beach; and "New England Summer," presented by Morgan Theater.

Winner of the Esquire-Bantam short story contest this year, Yelton is now under contract to write a novel to be published next year.

Direction of "Penance on a Sunday Morning" will be carried by Robert Cornthwaite, radio, television and screen actor. Cast members are Martha McMillan, Ed Cooke, Ann Sutton, Jay Ellis, Tom Anya, Kirby Gangel, John Bliss, Hal Lepper and Margaret Taylor.

Reservations for the five weekend run are available at FR 1-6561. Hampton Theater is located at 100 Wall St., Redondo Beach.

Commission Endorses 'Y' Fund Drive

A resolution commending the Torrance Family YMCA for their successful efforts "in behalf of the youth of our community" has been adopted by the Torrance Youth Welfare Commission.

Acting chairman Joseph Piatt said the commission endorses the present drive for funds and hopes the city will continue to support the YMCA.

Describing the task which the "Y" has done as "Herculean," the commission said it hopes the "Y's" contribution will be even greater when the new facilities are completed.

It's Just Mumps

Mumps held full sway over reportable diseases in Torrance during the week ending April 18, according to reports issued by the County Health Department this week. Only diseases reported by the local center for Torrance during that week were three cases of mumps.
