

New Moose Lodge Slate Installed

Members of the Torrance Moose Lodge installed B. E. "Red" Finke as governor during ceremonies held last week at the Moose Lodge. Installing officers were past governor Douglas Dixon and past governor James H. Johnston.

Other officers who were installed include: Joseph Powers, junior governor; Ralph Youngman, prelate; A. B. Wheelock, treasurer; James A. Evans, secretary; Thomas Walls, sergeant-at-arms; George Clay, assistant sergeant-at-arms; A. G. Pierce, outer guard, and William Pruitt, inner guard.

Douglas Dixon, Traverse Schinke, and Gerald Piser were installed as members of the board of trustees, and retiring Governor Joseph Marley was installed as junior past governor.

Assisting with the installation were members of the Escort Team of the Torrance Women of the Moose Chapter 44.

Graphic Arts Contract Let

Contracts covering a variety of items and services were awarded by the Board of Education Monday evening. Total value of the new awards was $39,145.

Largest of the awards was for equipment for the two graphic arts shops to be completed during the summer. A total bid of $22,318 was received for equipment for the printing shops, half of which will ultimately be paid by the federal government under a

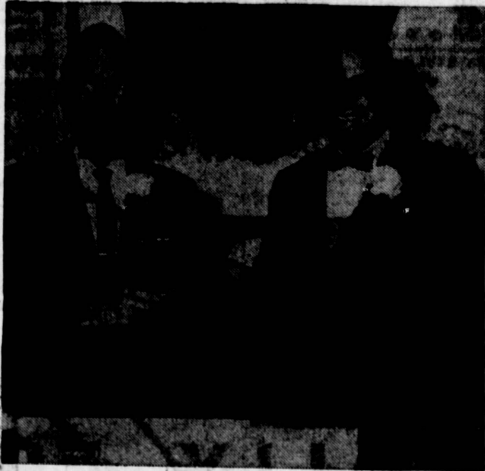

Following the installation ceremonies, dinner was served by the Women of the Moose. Mrs. Richard Bell was in charge of the dinner.
