Y-Indians Induction Saturday

Induction ceremonies for the Y-Indian Maidens will be held Saturday at 11 a.m. at the Alondra Park Gym and picnic area. More than 120 new mothers and daughters will be welcomed into the Torrance Family YMCA program for girls 6 to 9 years old.

The induction ceremonies will increase the number of tribes in the council from 14 to 19.

The ceremonies will be followed by a songfest and skits to be presented by the tribes.

A family picnic will begin at 1 o'clock.

The Y-Indian Maiden program is similar to the Y-Indian Guide program. Mothers and daughters take part in all activities together.

. . . Ann Landers

see her doctor and get back in shape—or else. If she fails to respond to your ultimatum, you can be sure that Ellie is a compulsive eater—destined to be broad where a broad shouldn't be broad. No man should marry a woman who is "repulsive to him."

Dear Ann Landers: Please say a word in behalf of the "Forgotten Woman"—the stenographer who is too old for huring; and too young for social security. Is the gas pipe the only answer?

I am 39, fairly attractive, neat and have 12 years of experience as a typist, file clerk and general Girl Friday. I quit work two years ago because I thought I wanted to stay home and be a housewife.

Well, I am fed up with bridge, the girls and the garden club. I want to go back to work but it seems no jobs are available for a woman my age.

There are movements afoot to hire the handicapped and retired folks who are in the golden years. How about a word to employers to give the "thirty-niners" a break? —
TULSA TILLIE

Dear Tillie: I don't believe your age is against you. Many employers prefer a 39'er to a 21'er because they want maturity and experience.

Ask the personnel director of a placement agency for an honest evaluation. There's a reason you can't get employment and it has nothing to do with your age.

Ann Landers' frank and informative new book, "Teen-Agers And Sex" ($2.95), is now available at your book store.

Ann Landers will be glad to help you with your problems. Send them to her in care of this newspaper enclosing a stamped, self-addressed envelope.
