Members of the Coro Classico de Palos Verdes and the Marymount Choral Club will join forces to present their annual spring concert May 17 at 8 p.m. in the student-faculty center.

Directed by Michael Zeart, the program will feature music for double chorus, familiar folk songs, madrigals, and catches.

Composers to be featured in the musical presentations will include: Johannes Brahms, Vaughan Williams, Thompson, Morely, Orlando Coole, Wilbye, Weelkes, Tschakowsky, Rachmaninoff, and Brahms.

Thirty California high schools will compete in the 31st annual one-act play tournament of the Pasadena Playhouse which began Monday and will continue through tomorrow, with the finalists vying for top honors Sunday.

Connie Hauser, who has appeared in numerous little theater productions in the area, is directing the Footlight Theatre production of "The Late Christopher Bean."

Although the mother of six small children Mrs. Hauser has found time to participate in such Southwest productions as "The Little Foxes," "Tobacco Road," "Drunkard," "The Bad Seed," "The Curious Savage," and "All My Sons."

The Footlight comedy will be presented on three consecutive weekends beginning May 15 at the Crenshaw Elementary School. For reservations call DA 9-5338.

"Music and Its Listeners in the Future" will be the subject of the final lecture in a series of four by Dr. Ernest Kanitz Tuesday at Marymount College, 7:30 p.m., in the lounge of St. Gertrude's Hall.

The romantic songs and colorful costumes of the vaudeville era will return to Manhattan Beach, May 8 and 9, when the South Bay Chapter of the Society for the Preservation and Encouragement of Barbershop Quartet Singing in America, Inc., presents its seventh annual show in Mira Costa High School auditorium.

Thurber Play Set
"The 13 Clocks" by James Thurber will be presented in four performances at the Pasadena Playhouse Children's Theater May 15, at 3:30 p.m.; May 16, 10 a.m. and 3 p.m.; and May 17, 3 p.m.
